

STRIKERS ON PICKET DUTY Parade Held This Morning

BOTH SIDES FIRM No Change Reported in the Strike Situation Today

The picketers of the I. W. W. were on deck very early this morning, but the bad weather interfered with their plans. They were not very numerous, but those in line made as much noise as an army would. The paraders, including two drums and a bugle, formed in line at the Hamilton mill in Jackson street and after parading for some time in that vicinity they marched to Market street to the plant of the Bigelow Carpet Co., where they cheered and furnished music for some time.

The plans as formulated were to form at the Hamilton mill and proceed to the Waterhead mill in Lawrence street, but the inclement weather was the cause of that part of the program being abandoned.

Monday morning the picketers will, according to plans, cover the entire mill districts and if possible will be equipped with all sorts of musical instruments such as accordions, violins and other brass and string instruments.

The police are still on deck at the different mills, morning, noon and night, but for the past couple of days no disturbance of any kind has been reported.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE AT I. W. W. MEETING

A very enthusiastic meeting of the I. W. W. was held this morning in their quarters at the corner of Market and Hanover streets, the main topic of which was the discussion of the mayor's letter which was sent yesterday to several labor organizations, and in which the mayor asked the mill agents to reopen their mills Monday and urged the textile workers to return to work for three weeks during which time he says he believes a settlement will be brought about. The letter was read from The Sun and some explained themselves as believing the mayor was in good faith.

The meeting was opened shortly after 10 o'clock by William Trautman, who presided, and the report from the different nationalities was received after the minutes of the last meeting had been read and accepted. The English delegate reported a large increase of members in their line, while the French delegate reported 25 new members had been added to the membership roll at yesterday's meeting.

Dr. Demopoulos in reporting for the Greeks said he had left Lowell yesterday to solicit funds among the Greeks out-of-town. He said he was in Boston yesterday afternoon when he was informed by telephone of the letter the mayor had sent to him. He immediately went to the Union station in Boston and secured The Sun, which by this way is always on sale at that place, and after reading the mayor's letter, he made up his mind to come right back to Lowell. He said he had seen four Boston Greeks and had collected the sum of $100. He then told how he left his three comrades to continue soliciting funds and returned to this city this morning.

"You, the I. W. W., have decided the same thing that I did last night when I first saw the letter, that is to remain firm and not return to work until the increase is granted. The mayor," he said, "advises to go back to work to give the March 25th schedule a fair trial. To this I say, you have been working in the mills all your life and know what is needed to live, without giving it another trial."

"The letter, I have no doubt was sent by the mayor through kindness and great interest for the city of Lowell, but we cannot accept these terms. I owe respect to the mayor, but I will state that the Greeks are not as stupid as they may look."

In closing the doctor said the situation so far as the Greeks are concerned remains the same as it was in the very beginning. He said some one advised the Greeks to return to work Monday, that the agents would grant a 12 per cent. increase and that the English speaking people would also return. The advice had no effect.

The Assyrian delegate reported his people would return to work after Easter if they are not provided with food. Mr. Trautman then announced a relief station will be started Monday and kept open until the strike is ended.

The Poles reported they would not return to work. They also reported two of their people struck at the Merrimack dye house and later went to work in the Waterhead dye house, where another strike is on.

The Carpet mill question was again brought up this morning when some one reported there were still people working in the dye house. Mr. Trautman announced he was going to Clinton today where the Bigelow Carpet company has a plant, and he will try

CENTRAL ST. SEWER The Work on it Was Begun This Morning

Work on the sewer petitioned for by Bradley Bros. in Central street was begun this morning. The sewer in question is for the purpose of draining the new Bradley building and will extend across Central street to the mouth of the Hurd street. The work was begun in Hurd street and inasmuch as it will necessitate the digging up of the new paving in Central street and "reshit" in general inconvenience to travel, the commissioner of streets and highways has decided to work two shifts on the job working from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. The expense of laying the sewer from the centre of Central street to the building will be borne by the petitioners. The engineers have estimated the cost of the sewer at $2100 and about $200 of that amount will be paid by the petitioners and on account of the improvement to the Hamilton wall property, so called, the city will receive a big increase in tax revenue.

After Bob Veal

Dr. Hamblet, inspector of meats for the city of Lowell, is keeping an eye out for bob veal in Lowell. He was tipped off that a big consignment had been shipped alive from New York and that the calves were to be killed in the vicinity of Boston and shipped here and to other cities. Dr. Hamblet says there is a lot of veal used in this city around Easter and that holds good, he says, in all cities where there are any considerable number of foreigners. According to Massachusetts law veal must be at least four weeks old while the federal law says three weeks, but whatever the law it is well to stay clear of bob veal.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 5.—A new world's record in night torpedo firing was made last night in this harbor by the United States destroyers Trippe and Monaghan. Every torpedo sent from the tubes of these vessels struck the bull's eye of the target.

The entire group of five vessels made an average of 70 per cent. of hits, which is above the average for even daylight firing under favorable weather conditions.

BULLETIN SERVICE

OF THE SUN WILL SOON BE RE-ARRANGED

The bulletin service of The Sun at Merrimack square has been temporarily interfered with by the tearing down of the old building, but in a few days a temporary structure will be erected on which to suspend bulletins enough to cover all the leading events of the day.

GOSS WITHDRAWS THE COAL OPERATORS

The Governor is Not a Candidate Willing to Stand by Decision of the Commission

OSTON, April 5.—Eugene N. Foster, candidate for the democratic nomination (Clark and Wilson) will not be withdrawn from the presidential primary ballot, as reported.

Curley Sees the Governor

The governor's action follows immediately upon the visit to Boston yesterday of Congressman James M. Curley of the first district. With him was Fred Burton of Idaho, Charles Clark of Oregon. The congressman himself is the official Massachusetts candidate.

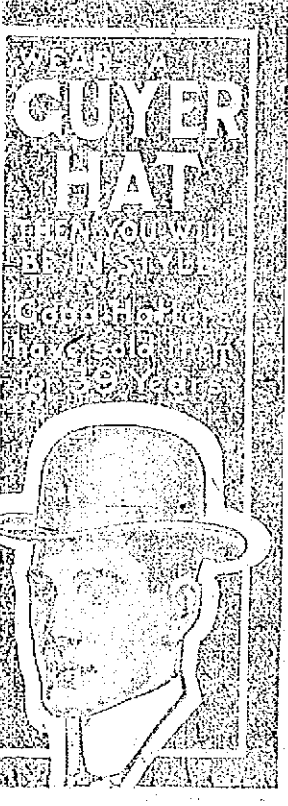

At 4 p. m. the congressman called at the executive department. At the state house, and was at once admitted to the private office of the governor. After a brief talk with the governor he came out, he announced that Curley's name would remain on the ballot.

At the same time he said that he planned to return early next week and give his personal attention to Curley's name for president in this year.

Curley's return this time follows his previous visit to Governor Foster and to Chairman Wilson and to Secretary Lester following his withdrawal from nomination in connection with the gubernatorial campaign. Curley's return is expected to result in the withdrawal of Curley's name from the presidential nomination in this year.

In other words if Senator Clark is the democratic nominee for the presidency he will use all the influence at his command to help Curley's name in the gubernatorial election.

It is said that Curley's return was made the day after his return to the state house to the governor.

GOSS FOR VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, April 5.—It is reported here that the understanding on which the first withdrawal of Curley from the ballot for the Massachusetts gubernatorial preference primary is based is that the day state primary is to have the Clark support for the presidential nomination in this year.

CURLEY OF MASS.

To the many friends who are anxious to see Curley's name on the gubernatorial ballot, the understanding on which the first withdrawal of Curley from the ballot for the Massachusetts gubernatorial preference primary is based is that the day state primary is to have the Clark support for the presidential nomination in this year.

that the commission recommended have been made and today the operators are asked to precisely the same thing which the commission with full power declined to direct them to do. "Another mistake" means any the anthracite operators should not replace the United Mine Workers as a party to a contract is that not nearly all the anthracite mine workers, and nearly a majority, are members of that union. Though the numerical strength of the union in the anthracite region may increase rapidly at times like the present it is well known that the great body of mine workers are outside of the organization most of the time.

"The experience of the last nine years has thoroughly justified the strike commission's plan for governing the relations between mine workers and operators. With the commission board always ready to settle grievances the mine workers have had complete recognition of their rights—a form of recognition that has been satisfactory to a vast majority of them."

Silas T. Welch, aged 59 years, died Wednesday at his home, 1104 Gorham street after absorbing two cupsfuls of Paris green. Mr. Welch was working with a companion on his farm in East Chelmsford when he swallowed the poison. Three hours passed before the poison began to show any effect and then, Mr. Welch was seized with terrible pains. He was removed to his home, a physician was called but his condition was so serious that nothing could be done, and he died a few minutes later.

NORTH CHELMSFORD

Yesterday, Holy Thursday, the mass was celebrated by the pastor, the Rev. Father Schofield, at 7 o'clock, and the church was crowded to the doors. Two hosts were consecrated, one of which was placed in the repository until the morning. A procession of the altar boys and the children of the Sunday school was held after the mass, banners being sung in honor of the blessed sacrament. The church was visited all day by a large number of people. At noon the church was crowded with the people from Lowell who are employed in the mills and who spend their noon hour in town. The young ladies who had charge of the repository were well repaid for their work, for it was beautifully decorated.

This morning the mass of the consecrated was offered up by the pas-

DR. FUNCK DEAD

PSYCHICAL RESEARCH MEN HOPE TO HEAR FROM HIM
 NEW YORK, April 5.—Members of the American Society for Psychical Research hope to obtain an authoritative communication from the other world through the death of Dr. Isaac K. Funck, who was a noted investigator of psychical phenomena and published three books on the subject of spiritualism, made elaborate arrangements some time ago to establish communication with a living man on earth following his death.

Dr. Funck's plans were announced to his friends in a statement which he made shortly after the death of Prof. William James, the Harvard psychologist.

"We have determined on a certain code of signals which no one on earth knows but the person to whom I will communicate and myself," said Dr. Funck at the time. "If he receives one of my signals after my death he will be absolutely certain that I have reached him. He will then establish communication with me, either through a designated medium, or by some means which I may find in the next world."

While Dr. Funck did not indicate the identity of the person he proposed to reach from the spirit world, it is believed that he is Dr. J. H. Hyslop, editor of the Journal of the American Society of Psychical Research and Dr. Funck's closest friend and co-worker in spiritualistic investigation.

FOUGHT WITH ROBBER

Woman Was Injured and Her Employer's Safe Was Looted

BOSTON, April 5.—There was a dramatic feature in the robbery in the office building at 111 Washington street yesterday, in which Miss Mary Carey of 12 Kingston street, South Boston, was the victim.

In trying to prevent the escape of two young thieves, she was handled roughly and had to be treated by a physician.

Miss Carey was alone in the office when the thieves entered. They claimed that they were from a piano company and that they had an appointment with Mr. Lansing.

Just then the telephone rang. It was Mr. Lansing. He was at an office of a piano concern on Brighton street. When Miss Carey told him two men who claimed to have an appointment were waiting, he said he had no appointment and did not believe he knew the men.

Miss Carey looked for the men. They had left their chairs and she heard them in the front office tampering with the safe. She shrieked and dropped the receiver.

Lansing hurried to his office and found the accountant lying on the floor dazed. The thieves had taken $5.

Patrolman James Orr of Division 4 called a physician and Miss Carey was revived. She was suffering from hysteria and a sprained ankle. Miss Carey said one of the men got out without much trouble, but she grappled with the other in a desperate effort to detain him while she screamed to attract some one to the office.

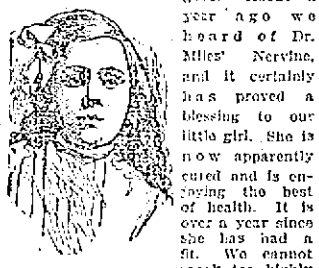

The man rushed her away violently and she fell. He followed his companion racing down the stairs. Workmen pursued the retreating robbers, but the thieves were soon lost in the crowd.

Miss Carey told the police the same men visited the store a week ago, inquiring for her employer. A few minutes before they robbed Lansing's office they entered the establishment of J. A. Laidley & Co. in the same building, according to Douglas Post of Malden.

Miss Carey has been prominent in the church of St. Augustine's parish, South Boston. She has taken part in several amateur entertainments and is one of the "Home Town Girls" in the minstrel show of Pere Marquette council, Knights of Columbus, which is to be given next Wednesday.

Finds Cure for Epilepsy After Years of Suffering

"My daughter was afflicted with epileptic fits for three years, the attacks coming every few weeks. We employed several doctors but they did her no good. About a year ago we heard of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and it certainly has proved a blessing to our little girl. She is now apparently cured and is enjoying the best of health. It is over a year since she has had a fit. We cannot speak too highly of Dr. Miles' Nervine."

PIMPLES SO DISFIGURING HE SHUNNED FRIENDS

Face Completely Covered. Blackheads, Too. Lasted Four Years. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Face Is Now Smooth.

R. F. D. Patterson, N. H.—"I was bothered with pimples and blackheads in the worst way for over four years. My face and arms were completely covered with them. The pimples would come out on my face and neck all up. They would scrub ever, and make my face sore, besides being so disgusting that I shunned my friends. I tried facial cream, talcum and benzoin with no effect.

"One night I asked a friend what was good for pimples, and he advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment which I did. I would wash my face first with hot water and Cuticura Soap, and then put on some Cuticura Ointment. It did not stay on for minutes, and I would wash my face again with the Cuticura Soap. It would drag the blackheads out and the pimples, oh say, it was one grand relief to go among my friends and be jolly again. After using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, my face is as smooth as if there never had been a pimple on it. I cannot speak too highly of the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and I hope others will profit by them as much as I have. I know they will after giving them just one trial."

(Signed) Arthur E. Caswell, May 6, 1911.
Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25-cent back on each soap treatment. Address, "Cuticura," Dept. T, Boston. Tender-faced men should shave with Cuticura Soap shaving stick.

board that will go into effect as a result of the compensation act.

It was reported that a telephone has been installed in the hall under the trades and labor council name and the number is 1715.

COMPENSATION ACT

Discussed by Rep. Jos. A. Parks

A well attended meeting of the Trades & Labor council was held last night at the headquarters in Middle street.

President Welch was in the chair and considerable routine business was transacted. Representative Joseph A. Parks of Fall River was present and spoke on the workmen's compensation act which will go into effect July 1.

John Golden, president of the United Textile Workers of America and Organizer West of the American Federation of Labor also spoke. The latter's union reported that at the present time 95 per cent. of the men following that trade are members of the union.

The Distresses' union reported that beginning next Saturday, 41 hours will constitute a week's work.

The Electrical Workers' union reported that they were growing rapidly and another large number of men will be initiated at tonight's meeting in Carpenter's hall.

A communication from Mayor Jos. E. O'Donnell, in relation to the present strike in the textile industry, was read and referred to the executive committee for their action in conjunction with the textile union.

Several communications were read and proper action taken thereon. It was unanimously voted to endorse Representative Joseph A. Parks for appointment to the industrial accident

MARRIED WOMAN

Is Adopted by Aged Couple

BOSTON, April 5.—George H. Cochran, a prosperous business man, whose office is at 174 State street, was yesterday, on petition of himself and wife, granted permission by the probate court at East Cambridge to adopt Mrs. Bernice M. Robbins, aged 27, whose husband, Henry B. Robbins, was a carpenter, and whose home is at 4 Enoch street, Dorchester.

Mrs. Robbins was originally Bernice Peabody, daughter of John and Jane Peabody of Rolling Dam, N. H., both deceased. She was employed for several years prior to her marriage by Mr. Cochran in his office.

Mr. Cochran is 71 years old, lives at 137 Pleasant street, Woburn, on a fine estate, and is one of the most public spirited men in that city. He said last evening that there is no mystery in the reason for his adoption of Mrs. Robbins, who worked faithfully in his office for years and has at the same time been an ever-welcome friend and guest at his home.

"Mrs. Cochran and myself," said he, "think the most practical way in which we could best do our duty towards an aged and deserving woman, and affection for Mrs. Robbins, whose parents are dead, would be by adopting her, which we have done, with the approval of her husband."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cochran have been married before and both are said to have children by their first marriages.

large attendance. The staff gave its usual drill.

Div. 1, A. O. H.

The members of Division 1, A. O. H., met in regular session last night and transacted considerable routine business. Seven candidates were initiated and 17 propositions for membership were received. Remarks were made by Brothers D. Patrick Bagley, Michael Carey, Frank Welch and Dr. J. B. O'Connor. The three committees reported progress on the arrangements for the affair and other reports were made.

Sara Walter Foss Club

The regular meeting of the Sara Walter Foss Library club was held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. A. Wheeler, 29 South Loring street.

The feature of the meeting was an interesting talk by Miss Alice French, medical inspector of the Lowell public schools. The speakers explained her duties in connection with the position.

During her remarks she referred to a number of cases when children suffering from various physical ailments were cared for under her homeopathic supervision. In her work she has been ably assisted by the Hygiene society and superintendent of schools.

At the close of the talk a social hour followed and lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Doty, Mrs. Fitch and Mrs. Hicks. The club will hold the next meeting with Mrs. G. T. Fernald, 11 Stewart street, April 17.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

J. Paul Mureel, the French Canadian actor and his company of Parisian artists will be the offering for Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, at the Opera House, presenting on this occasion Alexander Bisson's famous French comedy in three acts, entitled "Les Surprises du Mariage." This favorite French examination has recently been seen in this city in another play and they left a most excellent impression.

"THE CONFESSION"
A new play by James H. McKelvey. "The Confession," the play that started all New York, while appearing at the Elgin Theatre, Broadway, on its long and successful run, will be presented at the Opera House on Friday, April 12th.

"The Confession" is a play which runs the gamut of every human emotion and is the supremacy of human feeling. It will be presented with an excellent cast of players.

"THE COUNTRY BOY"
Eugene Seelye's popular comedy, "The Country Boy," which has been described as one succession of bright lines and laughs, comes to the Opera House, Saturday, April 13th. The production is from the Henry B. Harris studios which is sufficient guarantee of its merit.

Billie Burke, who always was young enough in all conscience, they say is younger and prettier and more winsome than ever in "The Runaway," the comedy she brings to the Opera House soon. In this play Miss Burke impersonates an eleven-year-old girl and she looks it. One New York critic dubbed her the Peter Pan of player ladies because she absolutely refused to grow up.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

Bert Fittigson continues to make the crowd roar at Keith's for he is one of the few vaudeville performers who is real funny in the opinion of all, without exception. Without make-up or costume he strolls upon the stage and reminds all over it, talking and kidding all the time while the audience hasn't a chance to stop laughing. "The Bandit" is a play which all agree is a capital hit. It is a funny, interesting story and is capably acted by E. J. Hawley and Frances Haight. The Bertrons have a delightful musical act and a most pleasing surprise. One of the pair, the violinist, comes out as the most charming female that has been seen on the stage in a long time and after singing all men in love with her she takes off the wig and presents herself as a man. The pair perform on piano and violin, which and Chetlet is the greatest bicycle act of the season. They ride every old kind of a wheel and ride them well and also have considerable comedy in their act. "The Land of the Living" is an unusual act of the triple team and transpires something entirely different from the rest of the vaudeville exhibitions. Russell and Gray do a neat singing act. Mr. Russell singing in three distinct voices. Isabelle Fiske and her clever boy assistant offer a novel singing act. Ron Randall, the cartoonist, shows pictures with lightning-like rapidity. Then there are the pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Today, Good Friday, the Merrimack Square Theatre will be closed. This day the stage and orchestra in two years that the playhouse has closed its doors, the first being a year ago today. The last of the week's series will be given on Saturday afternoon, with the night performance by the members of the Stock company making their departure from the city after 21 weeks of successful presentations of high-class plays in which its members have appeared to advantage and by their unusually clever work made fast friends of the many patrons of this playhouse. Saturday night will be "Good Bye Night" and a large crowd is expected to be on hand to bid their farewell to the Merrimack Square Theatre. Miss Constance Jackson and her musical troupe will be the first of the playhouse's new company. The production will be one of the lightest plays in which this aggregation of entertainers has appeared since their coming to Lowell. "The Choice" has been given here once before and proved such a favorite that it is being repeated. It has many pleasing features and should prove a fitting close to the very successful run by Mr. Weston and his assistants.

The other members of the bill consist of Autromma, female impersonator in the latest Parisian costume, containing the Oriental Salome dance of "The Blue Bird," known as "The Green Girl from Gretna" and Fennell and Tyson in a mixture of good entertainment. The playhouse for the last part of the week are among the best shown this season. Watch for tomorrow's announcement of next week's list. It will contain many interesting numbers. JOE THOMAS

RETURNS TO LOWELL

"Joe" Thomas Decides to Stay Here

"Joe" Thomas, one of the cleanest and also one of the top notch middle-weight boxers of the country, who arrived in this city from California last week has decided to make Lowell his home. Joe is married to a sister of the Gardner brothers and as Mrs. Thomas preferred this section of the country "Joe" sold out his interests in the Golden State and came here. He has been in this vicinity for many years and was one of the most popular residents of Lowell. He has also done considerable work in any form of industry in the city. Upon coming here this time he was invited by the president of the Lowell Social and Athletic club, Jimmy Gardner, his brother-in-law, to show the members what he could do and he has agreed to appear at the next meeting of the organization on Friday evening, April 12. This will undoubtedly be a pleasing announcement to his friends here. The news that he is to become a citizen of the city of Lowell is also pleasing "info," not only to the sporting fraternity, but to all. On next Friday night Thomas will try conclusions with Terry Martin of Philadelphia in the main bout at the meeting of the club. There are two of the best men that can be secured. Both are among the leaders in their class. Thomas at one time held the middle-weight title of the world and is still a claimant of that much disputed title. Martin who appeared here a short time ago is also a candidate for the title and when the two meet a good bout is sure to result. In his last bout here, Martin was not put to a test, but during the short time that he was in the mill he was there strong. Thomas is training hard for the bout, not only to win but to show those who will now be his fellow citizens that he is the same clever boxer who fought here a few years ago.

Thomas is doing road work over the old route that Jimmy Gardner used. He runs from the Gardner home in upper Gorham street to Billerica every morning under the direction of Billy Gardner. In the afternoon he boxes with Jimmy and Young Stone. Martin is training at the Hub and expects to be in great trim for the meeting. Along with this great bout the other numbers on the program for next week are hummers. In the semi-final of 8 rounds, Young Stone, who is training with Thomas will meet Kid Roach of Boston. These are both clever boys. A short time ago they met at the club and gave a great exhibition. The bout went the entire distance and while Stone got the award it was very close. As both requested a return engagement, Matchmaker Gardner signed them up. The first preliminary will be furnished by Tommy Doyle of the Aere and Kid Tessler who comes from Centralville. These two boys had it once before at the club and while Doyle got the verdict he had to go some. Both fought gamely and showed good advantage. The next "prelim" will present Gardner Brooks of Ayer City and Spike Kennedy of the Aere. This bout is scheduled for six rounds and should be a good one. The meeting will be held in the main hall next Friday evening. This week's meeting was postponed in recognition of Good Friday.

HIGHLAND TEAM

Won from the Post Office Bowlers

The Highland M. E. team won all the points from the local Post Office team on the Crescent alleys last night. Maguire and Harrison each rolled 270. The Corinthians and the Bascia Pet met on the Crescent alleys last night and each team took two points. The former took the total by just 3 pins. The game was very interesting. Burden of the Corinthians was high man, getting a single of 141 and a triple of 304.

A team from Henderson's lunch cart and another composed of Lavery's drivers clashed on the Crescent alleys and split even. The "dog dispensers" took the first and the total, and the drivers got away with the other points. On the Brunswick alleys the Tremont & Suffolk team won from the Plumbers in the first game taking two strings and the total. In the second game the Plumbers evened up matters winning two strings and the total.

The Lamson Rapids and the C. Y. M. E. team met on Les Miserables alleys last night and the former won, getting away with the two strings and the total.

BASEBALL NOTES

Yerkes' line all-around work at second for the Red Sox has made him a fixture for that position. It is believed, and with Wagner in trim the team is already settled upon and will open up with Stahl, Yerkes, Gardner and Wagner doing the infield work.

The Mobile club has a full hand of Mike's on its staff this season. There is Mike Finn, manager; Mike O'Rourke, press agent; Mike Desmond, special officer; Mike McBurnett, ticket agent; and Mike Keeney, bat boy. That bunch ought to be a mascot for any team.

Ray Collins has shown in but one workout this spring and the wise ones are wondering if the big southpaw is looking for emigration. Collins seems to be shoulder-bound, and if this is so his stay with the Red Sox will probably come to an abrupt termination.

Manager Kling is getting enthusiastic over the outlook for a winner this season and after the game the other day expressed the opinion that both Demmelly and Peabie would win the bulk of their games this year. He rates Tyler as the best left-hander in the National league.

Even "Wild Bill" Donovan has been working out at shortstop for Detroit during Hughes Jennings' search for the man to fill Gus's shoes. President Navin as yet has not met Hugh's demand for salary, but it is beginning to look as if he would have to "come across."

President McAker has decided to hold onto the 25 men now with the Red Sox. He will carry four catchers, all of his 16 pitchers, for a while anyway, as until he can decide on the two men whom he can let out; also Hendley, Krug and Engle for extra infielders and Hensken for his extra outfielder.

The Red Sox games looked for Neshville on Wednesday and Dayton on Thursday have been called off and the team will not leave Hot Springs until Thursday afternoon at 1:30. This will bring the team to Cincinnati Friday morning. Robert McKay will take the team to Cincinnati and then leave for Boston.

None of the Boston National league catchers apparently has anything on big Gowdy when it comes to throwing.

Fred Lake says that only about six signs are needed to bring out the best inside work in the attack of the team at bat.

Crawford, a New Orleans pitcher, who did well for the Pelicans against Cleveland, will be tried out by the Naps at the start of the big league season.

While sojourning in California, Manager Chance of the Cubs picked up a youngster named Smith of Rockland, touted as one of the cleanest shortstops on the Pacific coast.

Paul Cobb, brother of Ty, dissatisfied with the terms of his contract, has been given permission by the Lincoln club of the western league to negotiate for his release.

All of the Chicago Cubs' pitchers are said to be in shape for a nine inning journey except Mordecai Brown. Brown has not done enough work this spring to warrant a full game's work. Cole and Lew Richie are in the best shape.

Pitcher Anderson has joined Hugh Duffy's Milwaukee team at Cuba, and the Anderson incident is closed for the present. The Boston players predict that the youngster from North Carolina will be back in the big league next spring to stay.

Manager Fred Lake will insist that the Providence Grays of 1912 play ball with their head as well as their arm and less this year and has already started to coach his players on the details of "inside baseball" that mysterious element in the game which is so puzzling to the majority of the fans.

Manager Jennings of the Detroit baseball team announced last night that Bush had lost his position at shortstop in his failure to report for the practice season. Viti will play in that position whether the hold-out comes back or not. Viti is said to be a much better hitter than Bush.

All the Pirates predict a great year for Marty "Toole, the Buccaners' costly bosom. "Mike" Douth is a great admirer of "Marty." It is worth every cent of that big word "Barney" Dreyfuss let go for him, and Michael recently. "It's got a spiteful that certain fools the better. I know for I batted against him."

So far as pitchers are concerned, the

On Saturday afternoon the basketball season for 1912 will begin when the Textile school team clashes with the strong Cambridge Latin squad team on the textile campus. ## FIRE IN TAUNTON

Lives of Several Persons Endangered

TAUNTON, April 5.—In a fire which gutted a house owned by Jacob Goldstein, the owner's young son, and William Robinson of Fall River were taken from a third-story window by firemen. Milton, Clinton and Lillian Goldstein, Mr. Goldstein's other children, were also taken when the fire was discovered, but were carried to safety by Mrs. Goldstein, Miss Ida Forest of Fall River, a visitor, and Miss Jessie Thompson, employed by the Goldstein family.

The fire started in the basement and getting into the parlor, burned to the roof. When Louis J. Antine, who lives on the second floor, smelled

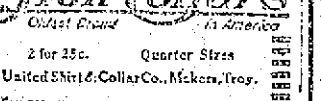

NATIONAL and "American" Collars are seen at the great outdoor game wherever you turn.

They are big favorites with the business men because they give both style and comfort.

"National" and "American" have the "Slip-Over" Button-hole, the "Easy-Tie-Slide" space and ample room for the scarf to show.

Ask your good haberdasher about the special features in smoke and opened the door to the basement he found a mass of flames. The occupants had no time in getting out and an alarm was rung in from box 71.

The roof and third floor were badly damaged while the remainder of the house was drenched with water. The loss may reach $2500 and is covered by insurance.

Considerable damage was also done by a fire which started in the place room at the Carr mills in Taunton this afternoon. The mill force tackled the fire first, but it proved too much for them and the city department was called.

JOE JEANNETTE

Found Black Bill an Easy Victim

LEWISTON, Me., April 5.—In a one-sided bout, not devoid of farcical features, Joe Jeannette of New York knocked out Black Bill of Philadelphia in the third round of what was scheduled for two six-round bouts in City hall last night. The crowd was one of the largest that ever saw a boxing exhibition here.

Jeannette, who out-weighted his opponent, was the aggressor. Light boxing, dodging and air-fanning, swings made up the opening round, but the fans hissed and booed and in the second round Joe opened up and lambasted Black Bill all over the ring. Black Bill going down for the count several times.

In the third round, after three going down for the count, Black Bill ran into a short-arm punch to the jaw that laid him cold.

John O'Brien of Lewiston, a former boxer, referee and baseball player, stepped into the ring to accept the challenge by Jeannette. Efforts to put him out of the ring resulted in a general mixup, in which the police intervened. O'Brien was finally overpowered and arrested.

LEADS IN SEVEN ROUNDS

ADAMS, April 5.—Johnnie Gallant of Boston won a decisive victory over Eddie King of New York in the main bout of eight rounds before the Northern Berkshire A. C. here last night.

After the first round, in which the honors were about even, Gallant did some effective work with right and left swings to his opponent's head and face.

King showed himself to be a clean, game boxer, but he was unable to land with any telling effect on the Boston boy.

Young Squire of North Adams got the decision over Young Moran of North Adams in the four-round semi-final, and Chester Johnson of Adams defeated Young Rogan of North Adams in a four-round preliminary.

MCHENRY GETS DECISION

BALTIMORE, April 5.—Jack McHenry, a Western welterweight, was given the decision over Frank Madden of New York after 15 rounds before the Washington Sporting club here last night. Madden fought as if he were deped.

LARRY WILLIAMS LOSES

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.—Barney Williams and Larry Williams, local middleweights, furnished the windup at the Broadway A. C. last night, with the result that Barney won in the last two rounds.

The first four rounds were even, but beginning with the fifth Barney dealt out punches to Larry which made the latter wince.

Barney did most of the leading and was the fresher at the close.

SEÑOR DE LA BARRA

Returns to America After a Long Absence

MEXICO CITY, April 3.—After a long absence from the United States, Señor de la Barra, the man who sent the call for the revolution, is expected to return to Mexico, the country's chief not to return to Mexico, do not content that he comes with the purpose of founding a new government, but to determine the political party life in Mexico. It is a matter of fact, generally impossible to predict for any period of time, for the plain reason that there have never previously existed two political organizations.

DON'T INVITE SICKNESS

Thin Blood Is a Standing Invitation to Every Disease That Is Prevalent.

Thin, impure blood is an invitation to sickness. The blood is at work, day and night, to maintain the health and any lack of strength or purity in the blood is a weakness in the defense against disease. Anemia is the doctor's name for lack of blood. There may be an actual loss in the quantity of the blood or one or more of its constituents may be lacking. Its usual symptom is pallor. Anemia is particularly common in young girls from 14 to 17 years of age. It is not confined to them, but it is the same lack of blood that prevents full recovery after the grip, fever, measles and scarlet fever, and is present in old age and in persons who have been under an unusual physical or mental strain.

If you are suffering from anemia you can profit by the experience of Mrs. H. C. Albertson of No. 3244 Glenora avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, who says: "I was in a terrible condition, all run down, nervous and hysterical some years ago. I had no appetite and was troubled with gas on the stomach. I was almost a skeleton and weighed only 105 pounds. I had no desire to live. I couldn't sleep well, was pale and yellow and there was no color in my lips at all. There seemed to be a pressure on the top of my head. I had palpitation of the heart and was short of breath on going up stairs or upon the least exertion. I declared incessantly and was told that I lacked blood. The doctor gave me tonic after tonic and advised me to take plenty of exercise and fresh air. He finally said he could do nothing for me. I felt very much discouraged. One day I came across a pamphlet in which I learned about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. After taking four boxes I felt much better, in fact like a new person. I felt cheerful and happy. I began to take on flesh. I took twelve boxes and the change in me was something marvelous. I looked the picture of health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the greatest medicine for a general breakdown of the system."

Send for free booklet, "Diseases of the Blood."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Buy Flour And Receive Money Back

GREAT DELIGHT AMONG LOWELL WOMEN

Here's what one Lowell woman said: "This new plan of getting $1.00 worth of discount checks with a $1.00 bag of MONEYBACK FLOUR is great. Lowell merchants redeem these checks and in this way my flour costs me nothing. The dealers are glad to have you bring in the MONEYBACK coupons. Now, that I can buy MONEYBACK FLOUR in this way, I figure to save over $50 this year—and that will help a lot towards buying my clothes. The Flour is the best I ever used."

Here's How You Can Do It

Go to your grocer and ask for a bag of MONEYBACK FLOUR. In the bag you will find a book of 20 discount checks. Each check will entitle you to five cents discount on every dollar's worth of goods purchased in the stores mentioned below. Every time you buy a dollar's worth of goods you are reducing the original cost of your flour by 5c. For instance, if you buy a hat for $2.00, you receive from the merchant a rebate of 10c (and you still have 18 5-cent coupons left to redeem). When you buy a $15.00 suit you receive 75c back, and so on until you have received back the entire $1.00. This makes your MONEYBACK FLOUR cost you nothing. The range of articles you can buy covers nearly everything. You would be surprised how quickly you can use those discount checks. In the majority of cases you will use them all up before your bag of flour is gone. The wise housewife can obtain all the flour she uses for nothing. These discount coupons are transferable. Anyone can profit by them.

Here's How We Can Do It

Some merchants pay big money to advertise their business in newspapers, street cars, booklets and so on. Other merchants pay out money for advertising in other ways. It is good advertising for merchants to agree to redeem MONEYBACK coupons. The discount coupons enclosed in the bag of MONEYBACK FLOUR bring business to their stores, and they are willing for the advertising they get in this way to allow 5c to you on every dollar's worth of goods purchased, which helps you pay for the flour. Remember, FIRST, that we as large flour merchants receive full wholesale price from the grocer for MONEYBACK FLOUR and that, although you can reduce to nothing the cost that you pay for MONEYBACK FLOUR, THE DISCOUNTS WHICH ENABLE YOU TO DO THIS ARE GIVEN BY LOWELL MERCHANTS AND NOT BY US. SECOND, that MONEYBACK FLOUR is the highest grade flour you can buy. Every sack of MONEYBACK FLOUR is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction. It is made of selected wheat, and every detail looked after to make it a perfect flour. Your baking will prove how good it is. If at any time you feel that MONEYBACK FLOUR is not equal to the best flour you have ever used, take back the unused quantity to the grocer and he will give you the money you paid for the whole bag.

New England Flour Company

BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING, BOSTON MASS.

P. S.—Practically every grocer in Lowell and vicinity carries MONEYBACK FLOUR or will get it for you.

bestows a radically differing state of affairs in the two sections of the republic. The states of Puebla and Morelos are peopled with the folk of the "old Mexico." A dozen generations of exploitation, witnesses of succeeding regimes of landlording and alien indifference to established popular authority, produce a race in whose imagination there can linger no image of even approximate republican rule. In action they are not unlike the American mountaineers, who settle his own questions of justice and keep a can in readiness for the advancement of his personal interests. Unlettered and out of touch with the rest of the world, the Mexican backwoodsman needs no captain to lead him on forays of robbery. Taking away both Zapata and the pressure of government authority, conditions in Puebla and Morelos would probably be very little different from what they now are.

But northern Mexico breathes a different air. Its people, men and land-herd alike, have lived in the saddle too long and felt the freedom of the open spaces too long not to have developed a different individuality. Careless of the polish of civilization, of which they know much through contact with the busy life across the Rio Grande, they yet have a broader sense of genuine liberty and are more unresponsive to authority of their own making. Physically, as well as mentally, they differ from the south. They have more money, better clothes, they must work harder for a living in a more rigorous climate. They have never succumbed to the curse of landlording as have their countrymen, and the "Chibchaneque" has been a freer man from time immemorial. Consequently, with a medium of liberty in his grasp, the northern knows better what to do with it and will fight more intelligently for its retention. This has been the main source of the difference between the Orizaba army and that of Zapata. From general down to humblest camp follower, a difference of history characterizes the two bodies.

SENATE WANTS TO KNOW IF JAPAN HAS ATTEMPTED TO GAIN Foothold IN MAGDALENA BAY

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Preliminary steps have been taken by Acting Secretary of State Wilson to comply with the Lodge resolution passed by the senate calling on the president for information in regard to the alleged attempt by Japan or Japanese interests to gain a foothold on the Mexican coast near Magdalena Bay, near Barron Chabela, the Japanese ambassador, and Senator Crespo, the Mexican ambassador, denied that Japan had made any overtures for any sort of concession in Mexico. It was regarded as significant, however, that there were no denials that Japanese citizens, representing steamship companies or other enterprises, have endeavored to obtain concessions which might be calculated for use by the Japanese government at an opportune moment. State department officials decline to admit that there is any important evidence in their possession indicating that the Japanese government is endeavoring to obtain a naval base in the western hemisphere. It is admitted, however, that about a year ago the Diaz government was interested on the subject, and denial was made that there had been any attempt on the part of Japan to gain a concession. It was said then that since the Mexican government felt obliged to cease granting concessions to the United States for target practice in Magdalena Bay it would not grant like concessions to any other government.

DRIVEN FROM HOMES

Thousands of Refugees Being Sheltered at Hickman, Ky.

HICKMAN, Ky., April 5.—A picture of the central city which shelters 3000 of other refugees is presented by this homeless, helpless persons or the uprooted town whether it be a view of the stretches out before them and the thread of leaves on which men are working with the utmost energy to thwart the river's expanding.

The climax of the catastrophe may come at any moment with the breaking of the Red Post levee, below here. Hundreds of men are trying to strengthen it against the tide and are working with desperate energy.

The crest of the river already is washing over the top of levees in many places and several ominous leaks have been discovered and stopped in the last 24 hours.

Thieves are becoming active in the flooded section of West Hickman. County authorities are discussing the advisability of asking for a company of militia to protect property.

Refugees continue to arrive in great numbers. Their losses are temporarily obscured in their thoughts of personal suffering and anxiety over their kin.

Mrs. William Venter of island number 8, who was rescued by a launch, is almost distracted because her husband and children were left behind, having taken refuge in the attic of their home, where she says the inhabitants of the island were driven several days ago. She thinks the water must be to the house tops by now.

One woman walked 12 miles in eight hours with six children. She carried the youngest, a family from Missouri spent a half day by rafting across the river in a skiff and the men were nearly exhausted before they got out of the current.

A steamer is plying along the river below here picking up marooned residents. Boats have been rescued in this manner from perilous positions. Three hundred are quartered at Tiptonville, Tenn.

Organized relief work is being successfully carried on here with the means at hand and as funds arrive the refugees will, at least, be spared the hardship of hunger. Wagon trains of provisions and bedding have arrived from Fulton, Ky., and Union City, Tenn. The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis is running trains to East Hickman, a mile away, where a temporary station has been built.

On the hills where tents have been put up the women of Hickman assisted in preparing the camp for the refugees, distributing food, clothing and bedding.

Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the cellar before sweeping and the musty smell will disappear.

A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

COTTON MILLS STRIKE

To induce the workers to refuse to send the yarn to Lowell and in this way close the local plant.

Alice George in reporting for the Associated said her people will be in the strike line Monday morning with their usual instruments.

The Portuguese protested against the mayor's letter and they say they will stick to the strike until the last minute. If they are ejected from their homes they propose to erect tents on a tract of land in Waverley owned by one of their own, and live there.

The Polish delegate told of a meeting of his people which was held yesterday after the mayor's letter had been received.

A letter was received this morning from the Lawrence branch of the I. W. W. which stated a mass meeting will be held in the latter city tomorrow evening, and the people from the Lowell river city urge the committee to send delegates to speak and collect funds at the said meeting.

Mr. Trautman was the next and last speaker. He said in part: "It appears that from the beginning of the strike two mills have large orders to fill. One has a government contract and if the goods are not delivered in time the mill people will be obliged to forfeit a certain sum of money. The other mill has orders for a year and a half in advance and cannot afford to be shut down."

"I do not know about the strike which occurred in Lowell in 1902, but I know of conditions which existed in Fall River during the last strike, when the operatives were cheated of their bread. However I am satisfied there is not one soul in Lowell who is willing to be cheated out of this fight. No labor effort can send workers to work by command. There will be no settlement until the agents come through the channel they themselves proposed, and meet the employees in conference.

"In Clinton the agents have offered 12 per cent increase and also give the weavers the privilege of weighing their own cloth, but they refused to abolish the thing system among the weavers."

Mr. Trautman closed his remarks by urging the strikers to remain firm and stick to their demands, which mean victory in the end.

THE LOOMFIXERS' UNION DISCUSSED MAYOR'S LETTER

The Loomfixers' union held a large attended meeting in their hall in Boston building this morning, and they were addressed by John Golden. Previous to the meeting the executive council of the United Textile Workers of America met at 32 Middle street and discussed the mayor's letter to that body. The letter was then referred to the Loomfixers' meeting and there again a general discussion followed. Finally the executive committee was instructed to form a reply to the said letter and present to the mayor this afternoon.

THE MULE SPINNERS HELD MEETING THIS MORNING

The Mule Spinners' union met in their hall, 22 Middle street, this morning and the letter sent to them by the mayor was read. No action was taken, however, and the letter was referred to this evening's meeting when the national secretary, Urban Fleming, of Holyoke, will be present. At this meeting also the question of the loomfixers returning to work to the Hamilton mill will be taken up.

GOLDEN TO REPLY TO THE MAYOR'S LETTER

In regard to the mayor's letter to the Textile Workers of America, Mr. John Golden when seen this morning by a Sun reporter, said he had no statement to make, but that the executive council of the organization would take up the matter this afternoon and reply to the mayor.

Mr. Carl Wyatt, national president for the American Federation of Labor, when interviewed about the letter sent by the mayor, said this morning: "The mayor has a right to send a letter which we may not approve, but we shall reply to him."

THE PORTUGUESE PROTEST AGAINST MAYOR'S ACTION

The Portuguese at a meeting held yesterday afternoon of the mayor's action.

Milady's Toilet Table

By Mrs. D. MILLER

A simple home treatment that keeps the hair fine, clean, shiny and glossy is dry shampooing once or twice a month with this. To prepare the powder, mix a cupful of cornmeal, four ounces of powdered cerise run in a fruit jar and mix with it a small amount of perfume. Sprinkle a little on the head and brush it out thoroughly, and it will take all dirt, dandruff and excess oil with it.

A luxurious everyday toilet necessity of the choicest materials can be made at home at little cost by simply dissolving an original package of mignonette in a half-pint white hazel. Cover the face, neck and arms with this solution, and its purity, fragrance and velvety softness will prove desirable and refreshing to the most sensitive skin. It beautifies without "padding" as no powder does.

A splendid remedy for sores, skin eruptions, pimples, eczema and itching. Apply the cream to the sores, and it will heal them, and is recommended for all kinds of sores. It is antiseptic, as well as healing and tends to prevent blood poisoning.

Probably nothing is more humiliating to a woman than hair on her face. However, this can be quickly removed by applying delicate paste. Mix enough powdered cerise with water to cover the hair, leave on for two minutes, then wipe off, wash the skin, and the hair will be gone.

How to Have A Beautiful Complexion

One of our lady readers who found that her skin was becoming harsh and dry, and the use of all powders, rouges and creams, made no difference, writes: "I have used your 'How to Have a Beautiful Complexion' and I am so greatly benefited by the beauty of my complexion that I have entirely done away with all other preparations which I had been accustomed to use. This lotion can easily be prepared at home or by any good druggist. It costs for two ounces of Rose Water, 20c; French Tincture of Benzoin, and two ounces Flowers of Oxidation, 10c. Mix together and apply with a brush, or with the hands, and use a soft cloth or sponge. Always shake well before using. Our obliging correspondent asks that her name be withheld for personal reasons, but she nevertheless gives us the permission to publish her letter for the benefit of other readers. She adds that this formula was given her by a woman 65 years old whose youthful complexion and almost total absence of wrinkles were a source of wonder and admiration to all who knew her."

Reference to the Baker-Jones drug store of this city, brings out the statement that these ingredients are all regularly carried in their stock, and that they can fill the prescription at any time.

action of the strike situation and voted their disapproval by sending the following letter to The Sun for publication:

"It is understood that the mayor of Lowell has requested the strikers of Lowell to go back to work and he would settle the strike, if not satisfactory the workers could come out again. At a meeting of the Portuguese strikers, the house, which was crowded, voted unanimously against officials of Lowell interfering in the battle for better living conditions of the workers of Lowell."

The workers will fight their own battle with their masters and will not go back until their demands are granted.

C. L. Fingree, Chairman Press Com. Lowell Strikers.

MILLS MAY NOT OPEN ON MONDAY MORNING

Agent John C. Wadleigh, president of the Mill Agents' association, could not be located this afternoon, but he was quoted as saying last night that the mills would not be opened on Monday next.

GOOD FRIDAY

Observed in the Catholic Churches Today

In all the local Catholic churches last evening the services were attended by large congregations. At the Sacred Heart church the sermon on the Passion was preached by Rev. James McDermott, O. M. I. In St. Peter's and the other churches the Ten Hours was chanted.

After the services the people of the different Catholic churches in the city visited the churches and offered prayers. It is customary to visit three churches on Holy Thursday. The crowds of people that were seen coming and going from the churches during the evening were very large. In all the churches the repositories were decked with flowers and there were numerous lighted candles. The repositories were arranged at the side of the main altars, where all shrines and the tabernacles were placed, denoting that the sacrament was not there but reposing in the altars on the left. While the faithful visited the church, the many altar boys served alternately as a guard of honor at their respective churches. The Holy Thursday service is one of the most impressive in the Catholic church and on that day every one of the faithful plans to visit at least one church during the day.

Today is Good Friday, the day on which Christ died on the cross. It is called good, because by His death He showed His great love for man and reopened the gates of heaven. In all the churches, during the entire day, impressive services were held. At the morning service the hosts were the black veils, the altars were decorated with flowers and candles. The processions according to St. John's said. In the prayers of supplication and petition the church makes intercession for all classes of men. The offering of the crucifix is a solemn act of reparation to Jesus Christ for the inhumanity of His passion by venerating the cross. Thrice the people kneel—the priest chanting the beautiful words: "Behold

IT LOOKED THAT WAY.
Mrs. Brown—I don't know why I married you.
Brown—I think you did it with malice aforethought.

ON THE ROAD.
First Actor—Sir, when I played in that town the people dropped their work.
Second Actor—And forced a posse, eh?

TIGHT AT THAT.
Ready—That's a swell hat Crosby wears.
Ready—Yes. It matches his head.

A METHOD IN HER MADNESS.
"How did you come to take up physical culture?"
"To tell the truth, I found a perfect reaction of a gown that I couldn't wear unless I got my weight down."

HIS REASON.
"Why do you drink so much beer?"
"My wife holds all our drinking water and I've just got to have some-thing that tastes well."

SUCCESSFUL.
"So you liked Evelyn's father last night, eh? Did you come out all right?"
"Yes, I was just lucky enough to light in the flower bed where the ground was soft."

FORTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Three Men Went Over the Pawtucket Falls

Forty-five years ago yesterday three men went over the Pawtucket falls in a racing shell and two were drowned. The survivor, Thomas Dunlavy, is still in the land of the living and is robust and active. Mr. Dunlavy lives at 25 Willow street and works for the city. He is employed in the water department and he says that work has not been rushing of late.

The two men who went over the dam with Mr. Dunlavy were Edward Murphy and William Maher. Murphy's body was recovered near the Centralville bridge five weeks later, and Maher's body was never recovered. All three were athletes and good swimmers but the spring freshet was too much for them and Dunlavy's escape was almost a miracle.

The three men were preparing for a practice spin in a race boat and were waiting for the fourth man, Michael Landers. They were drifting carelessly about the dam and were in the danger zone before they realized it.

A reporter for The Sun called at Mr. Dunlavy's house in Willow street last night and Mr. Dunlavy told the story of the accident.

"We were waiting for Michael Landers, the fourth man, and he didn't show up. We were champing rowers and were preparing for a spin. Somebody spoke of going ashore and getting a man to substitute for Landers but we decided to wait. It was a cold day and the water was very high. We were looking about the dam, so to speak, and the first I knew of impending danger was when Maher hollered to me saying: 'Tom we're going over the falls.'"

"I was in the bow and the warning was too late. The boat was 27 feet long and I remember that when we struck the rocks I had been released from the boat. I grabbed at a rock and managed to hold on though the effort was a mighty one. I could almost hear my muscles give and take like a bawyer under great strain. I felt that I could not hold there very long though I had great confidence in my strength. I was the champion heavy

DIED SUDDENLY

BEATRICE NICHOLS PASSED AWAY TODAY

A very sad death occurred this morning in Cheberson Centre, when Miss Beatrice Thayer Nichols, one of the best known young women of that town died suddenly at her home on the North road.

Deceased who was but 16 years of age was held in high esteem by all the residents of Cheberson as well as by her many friends of this city, where she came occasionally, being connected with the tea store owned by her brother, in John street. The young woman was yesterday in the best of health and even last night attended an entertainment held by the Cheberson grange. She retired at her usual hour and this morning passed away without the least symptom of illness.

Her demise will be a keen blow to all who knew her, for she was a lovable and most refined young woman. She is survived by a brother, Charles Nichols, the tea man, and two sisters. The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock at her late home on the North road and friends are invited to attend.

BOTH SIDES FIRM

No Change Reported in the Strike Situation Today

The strike situation is unchanged today. Meetings of the different unions were held during the morning and afternoon and the letter from Mayor O'Donnell was discussed but no action was taken.

The picketers of the I. W. W. were on deck very early this morning, but the bad weather interfered with their plans. They were not very numerous, but those in line made as much noise as an army would. The paraders, with two drums and a bugle, formed in line at the Hamilton mill in Jackson street and after parading for some time in that vicinity they marched to Market street to the plant of the Bigelow Carpet Co., where they cheered and furnished music.

The plans as formulated were to form at the Hamilton mill and proceed to the Waterhead mill in Lawrence street, but the inclement weather was the cause of that part of the program being abandoned.

Monday morning the picketers will, according to plans, cover the entire mill districts and if possible will be equipped with all sorts of musical instruments such as accordions, violins and other brass and string instruments.

The police are still on deck at the different mills, morning, noon and night, but for the past couple of days no disturbance of any kind has been reported.

MEETING OF GREEKS CALLED FOR TONIGHT

Dr. Demopoulos, the leader of the Greek strikers has called a special meeting of his people for 6 o'clock tonight at the Greek school. It was his intention to have a meeting today, but the weather was so inclement that he decided to postpone it. He states that he has important news to tell his people. He said that many of the Greek strikers came to him this noon and stated that a prominent member of the colony had advised them to take the law in their hands and use violence against those who are working. The leader says that the statements of said man caused considerable excitement in the colony and that is why he called the meeting. He also informed the writer that he had notified the chief of police of the actions of the man whom he termed a "disturber."

The Greek delegates who accompanied the leader to Boston yesterday to solicit money from the Greek people are still in Boston. There are three men and they are authorized by Dr. Demopoulos to collect the money. His return to the city today was due to a call he received relative to Mayor O'Donnell's letter. He expects to join the men in Boston tomorrow and continue the work of securing funds for the Greek strikers.

THE WEAVERS' UNION ## TO PAY THE MEMBERS

The members of the Weavers' union held a meeting at their hall, 22 Middle street, this afternoon. The meeting was presided over by Thomas P. Reagan, and was largely attended.

The principal speakers were Joseph Tykoff of New York and John Golden. The latter received a couple of days ago from the mill agents a letter which proved to be on the same principle as that received by the Loomfixers' union, that is that the mill agents cannot grant a larger increase than was offered on March 23. This letter was as well as that of Mayor O'Donnell's referred to the executive council of the Textile Workers of America which will meet at 3 o'clock tonight after the meeting of the Mule Spinners' union. The council will take action on the letter and will send a reply to the mayor. The members of the Weavers' union who are entitled to draw pay from the said union will be paid off at the union hall tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A LARGE ATTENDANCE

AT I. W. W. MEETING

A very enthusiastic meeting of the

I. W. W. was held this morning in their quarters at the corner of Market and Hanover streets, the main topic of which was the discussion of the mayor's letter which was sent yesterday to several labor organizations, and in which the mayor asked the mill agents to reopen their mills Monday and urged the textile workers to return to work for three weeks during which time, he says, he believes a settlement will be brought about. The letter was read from The Sun and some explained themselves as believing the mayor was in good faith.

The meeting was opened shortly after 10 o'clock by William Trautman, who presided, and the report from the different nationalities was received after the minutes of the last meeting had been read and accepted. The English delegate reported a large increase of members in their line, while the French delegate reported 23 new members had been added to the membership roll at yesterday's meeting.

Dr. Demopoulos in reporting for the Greeks said he had left Lowell yesterday to solicit funds among the Greeks out-of-town. He said he was in Boston yesterday afternoon when he was informed by telephone of the letter the mayor had sent to him. He immediately went to the Union station in Boston and secured the train, which by the way is always on sale at that place, and after reading the mayor's letter, he made up his mind to come right back to Lowell. He said he had seen four Boston Greeks and had collected the sum of $100. He then told how he solicited funds and returned to this city this morning.

"You, the I. W. W., have decided the same thing that I did last night when I first saw the letter, that is to remain firm and not return to work until the increase is granted. The mayor," he said, "advises to go back to work to give the March 23th schedule a fair trial. To this I say, you have been working in the mills all your life and know what is needed to live, without giving it another trial."

"The letter I have no doubt was sent by the mayor through kindness and great interest for the city of Lowell, but we cannot accept these terms. I owe respect to the mayor, but I will state that the Greeks are not as stupid as they may look."

In closing the doctor said the situation so far as the Greeks are concerned remains the same as it was in the very beginning. He said some one advised the Greeks to return to work Monday, that the agents would grant a 12 per cent. increase and that the English speaking people would also return. The advice had no effect. The Asserian delegate reported his people would return to work after Easter if they are not provided with food. Mr. Trautman then announced a relief station will be started Monday.

The Poles reported they would not return to work. They also reported two of their people struck at the Merrimack dye house and later went to work in the Waterhead dye house, where another strike is on.

The Carpet mill question was again brought up this morning when some one reported there were still people working in the dye house. Mr. Trautman announced he was going to Clinton today where the Bigelow Carpet company has a plant, and he will try to get the strike ended.

BIGAMY CHARGE

To Be Made Against George Richards

George A. Richards was arrested in a house in Baldwin street in Middlesex Village last night and arraigned in police court this morning with Clara Dion on a complaint charging him with lewd and lascivious cohabitation. He will have to answer to a complaint charging him with bigamy when he is brought before the court next Monday morning.

Richards was married 12 years ago but he and his wife did not get along very well together and they separated, she going to Manchester, N. H. It is alleged that on September 15th of last year the defendant was married to the Dion girl and of late they have been living together in Baldwin street.

Mrs. Richards learned of the second marriage and immediately instituted proceedings and as a result of an investigation by the police it was decided to arrest the pair on a complaint charging them with lewd and lascivious cohabitation.

Last night Lieut. Freeman, Sergt. Ryan and Patrolman Johnson, armed with a search warrant, entered the house in Baldwin street and arrested the pair.

It is said that Richards has a child about 11 years of age by his first wife and last February the Dion woman gave birth to a child.

MARRIAGE PREVENTED

Father Says That Youth Abducted His Daughter

FRANKLIN, N. H., April 5.—The police prevented yesterday afternoon a marriage between Charles Hawkes, aged 19, and Etta Jones, aged 17, both of Fairfield Center, Me., at the request of Alfred Jones, the girl's father, who claims that Hawkes abducted the young woman.

City Marshal Hale received a letter yesterday morning from Jones, who said that Hawkes and the girl left Fairfield March 22. Jones suspected that they might be visiting Mrs. Ernest Morrill of Franklin, an aunt of Hawkes. He wrote that the girl had no reason for running away from home and he wanted the girl arrested.

Five days ago Hawkes and Miss Jones visited City Clerk Danahy and filed notice that they were to marry, this notice being required by New Hampshire law. Yesterday Hawkes visited the city clerk's office and secured his marriage license. He and his bride-to-be were on their way to Dr. Alva H. Morrill, pastor of the Christian church, when City Marshal Hale met them. He took them to the police station. Jones was notified and asked that they be held, saying he and an officer would be here today.

In Maine the age of consent is 18 for women and 21 for men. In New Hampshire it is 16 and 18, so that they clear the law here. Both declared their intention of getting married in spite of the father's objections and declared that they wouldn't return to Fairfield without a fight.

Hawkes is a plumber. He and the girl deny that they eloped. They came here to visit Hawkes' aunt. Both have secured work in a hosiery mill. Yesterday afternoon, when City Marshal Hale said that he would take the girl back to the Morrill home and place Hawkes in the police station, she threw her arms around her lover and refused to leave him.

Hawkes finally placed his worldly possessions, including the unused marriage license, in the hands of the marshal, and Mr. Ernest Morrill offered to go personal surety that they would be on their way in the morning, and both were allowed to go to their work in the mill.

The girl says that her father and mother are living apart and that she has been his housekeeper. She is an only child. Her father is a well-to-do farmer, she says.

CITY'S PROPERTY

Was Attached by Mrs. Ellen Quinn

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., April 5.—For more than an hour today the municipality of Portsmouth was without any furniture, vehicles or horses, owing to the city's tangible property being attached by Mrs. Ellen Quinn, who had entered a claim for damages. Mrs. Quinn's claim was for an alleged injury to her property and originally the sum was placed at $300. Last night at a city government meeting Mayor Badger disapproved the claim. Today Mrs. Quinn, through counsel, brought suit for $3,000 against the city and attached the furniture in the city hall and all of the horses and vehicles in the different departments, including the "hurry up" wagon and the horse pulling it. Somewhat more than an hour after the attachments were served Mayor Badger gave personal bonds and the embargo was raised.

"JIMMY" MAGEE

Reported to Manager Gray Today

Jimmy Magee, the crack left fielder of last year's Lowell team, arrived in town this morning from St. Louis. He reported to Manager Gray at the headquarters of the Lowell team and this afternoon joined the other members of the squad at Spaulding park. He is in a great condition and ready to start in a championship game.

Magee last year played a great game and at the end of the season was sold to the St. Louis American league team. He reported to that team late in the season. This year he went on the training trip with the team and did fine work. In one of the exhibition games between the Regulars and the Yankigans Magee got four hits out of four times at bat. Manager Wallace of the Browns was favorably impressed by the work of the speedy Lowell man but as he has three seasoned veterans in the field the Lowell man could not get a place.

The announcement of his return to this city is pleasing news to the Lowell fans. All would like to see him make good in faster company and feel confident that he will be seen there soon, but his return here will greatly strengthen the team. As he has been training with the St. Louis team he is ready to play mid-season ball. Jimmy is very popular here and his batting and fielding were important factors in the winning of many games last season.

A. E. O'Hair has completed his purchase and has settled in full with the Y. M. C. A. He has perfected his plans for changes in the building in Ward street. The work will start at once for making one of the largest and best furniture houses and he expects to be able to have the changes completed by the middle of the summer.

FOSS WITHDRAWS THE COAL OPERATORS

The Governor is Not a Candidate Willing to Stand by Decision of for President the Commission

BOSTON, April 5.—Eugene N. Foss, governor of Massachusetts, has withdrawn his name from the ballot for the presidential preference primary.

Later yesterday he sent word to this effect to the secretary of state. At the same time he wrote to Chairman Thomas F. Riley of the democratic state committee announcing his withdrawal and explaining that otherwise "the purpose of the presidential primary would be defeated and the people deprived of their newly acquired right."

He adds that he will request any delegates pledged to him to consider themselves entirely unpledged, and expresses the hope that the names of other candidates for the democratic nomination (Clark and Wilson) will not be withdrawn from the presidential primary ballot, as reported.

Curley Sees the Governor

The governor's action follows immediately upon the visit to Boston yesterday of Congressman James M. Curley of the 10th district. With him was Fred Dutton of Idaho, Champ Clark's manager. The congressman himself in the original Massachusetts Clark man.

At 4 p. m. the congressman called at the executive department at the state house and was at once admitted to the private office of the governor.

When after a brief hour's talk with the governor he came out, he announced that Champ Clark's name would remain on the ballot.

At the same time he said that he plans to return again early next week and give his personal attention to Clark's boom for president in this state.

Some hours after this the letters from Governor Foss to Secretary Langtry and to Chairman Riley were made public. The body of the letter to Secretary Langtry follows:

"I hereby withdraw my name from nomination in connection with the forthcoming presidential preference primary, and this notice to such effect is now forwarded to you under the provisions of section 2, chapter 550 of the acts of 1911."

In other words, if Speaker Clark is the democratic nominee for the presidency, he will use all the influence at his command to have Gov. Foss made his running mate on the ticket.

It is said that Representative Curley made his flying visit to Boston to carry this assurance to the governor.

CARD OF THANKS

To his many friends, too numerous to reach individually, the undersigned wishes to convey his profound thanks for their cordial sympathy expressed in various ways on the occasion of the death of his beloved wife. To each and all he is deeply grateful. Signed, Stephen Flynn.

55 State street, Lowell.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The anthracite coal operators took official cognizance today of widespread reports that the miners are planning to press their demands for recognition of the United Mine Workers of America by issuing a statement declaring that they are willing to stand absolutely upon the decision of the anthracite commission with respect to this demand.

Following is the statement:

"In view of the widely published statements that the anthracite mine workers are beginning to press the plan for the recognition of the United Mine Workers of America as a party to a contract the anthracite operators on the committee of ten consider it proper that the operators' attitude upon this question should be made clear as follows:

"The operators are willing to stand absolutely upon the decision of the strike commission with respect to this controversy. No claim has been made that new conditions have arisen to make the issue different now from what it was when the commission passed on it and the question should therefore not be re-opened.

"The operators have consistently held that it was unreasonable to ask them to enter into a contract with a union controlled by workers engaged in bituminous mining, a rival industry. They were upheld in this by the strike commission which declared that the first requisite for trade agreements in the anthracite industry should be an organization governed by the anthracite miners and free from control and dictation of bituminous miners."

"None of the reforms in organization

ARE YOU ONE?

Of course you've smoked a La Triada? From the number we have sold the past few years it hardly seems possible that one smoker has been missed. However, we would state that today, tomorrow and Sunday we will sell this very well known 10 cent cigar for 5c straight; boxes of 25 $1.25, and boxes of 50 at $2.50. Join the throng and have a good smoke. Howard, the Druggist, 127 Central street.

that the commission recommended have been made and today the operators are asked to do precisely the same thing which the commission with full power declined to direct them to do. "Another convincing reason why the anthracite operators should not recognize the United Mine Workers as a party to a contract is that not nearly all the anthracite mine workers, not nearly a majority, are members of that union. Though the numerical strength of the union in the anthracite region may increase rapidly at times like the present it is well known that the great body of mine workers are outside of the organization most of the time. "The experience of the last nine years has thoroughly justified the strike commission's plan for governing the relations between mine workers and operators. With the cancellation board always ready to settle grievances the mine workers have had complete recognition of their rights—a form of recognition that has been satisfactory to a vast majority of them."

Good Tomorrow for This World's Most Famous Beauty Specialist

An opportunity is now offered every reader of this paper to consult the world's most famous beauty specialist, Harriett Metcalf, of London and Syracuse, who has been successful in removing wrinkles from the faces of many women. A little over three years ago there was nothing known of her, but her judgment would actually remove wrinkles, but at the time Mrs. Metcalf made the important discovery which has since made her famous in two continents.

She demonstrated the great power of her new process by taking her own wrinkles out with it in three nights, after face massage, masks, straps, steaming, etc., had failed, and today Mrs. Metcalf's face is still free from wrinkles, her cheeks full and plump and her skin and complexion is a delight to behold. In fact, by using the process, the most beautiful woman in all Paris.

Her remarkable discoveries were brought before the judges of the Paris Exposition Internationale and the Bazaar Exposition Internationale for their investigation, and in both instances they quickly awarded her Gold Medals. The French government also honored her with a patent on her new process, and patents are now pending before the U. S. government at Washington.

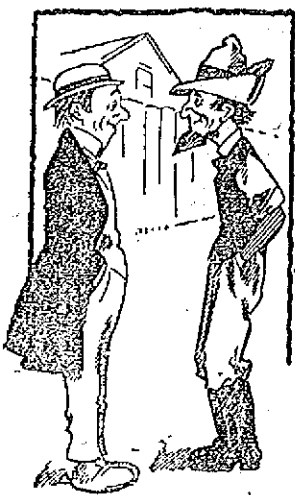

London journals sent their Beauty Editors to investigate her methods, and their high endorsements of her discoveries made her famous almost overnight, so that she was eagerly sought after by French countesses and English ladies of high title and rank. The Beauty Editors of the London Observer wrote: "An interview with Mrs. Metcalf led me to the secret that here at last might be found the secret to restore youth and beauty."

Many of those who have used her process report most astonishing results. Mrs. J. A. Davis, of East St. Louis, Ill., says: "My wrinkles were very deep and of long standing, so you can imagine my sorrows when, after only two applications, they entirely disappeared." Mrs. L. E. Hixell, of San Francisco writes: "I am 50 years old. Consequently my wrinkles were of long standing and had not thought it possible to erase them, but now when I view my changed reflection in the mirror I can scarcely realize the transformation. This has been wrought by Mrs. J. A. Davis, of Raleigh, N. C., says: "Since using the treatment I look younger than I did 25 years ago." Mrs. M. L. Lee, Evansville, Ind., writes: "I used the Commissioner Palmer is planning to work in conjunction with the sealers of weights and measures of the various cities and towns. The state officials are liable on and after April 13 to drop into a store or stop a peddler's team and not only confiscate dry measures, but also cite the owner into court.

"Section 21. All fruits, vegetables and nuts, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, shall be sold at retail by dry measure, weight or by numerical count, and all fruits and vegetables for which a legal weight has been established shall be sold at retail only by weight or numerical count. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall forfeit a sum not exceeding $10 for each offense."

The standard of bushel weight of certain commodities is included in the following new act: "Section 1. Section 4 of Chapter 62 of the Revised Laws, as amended by chapter 297 of the acts of the year of 1910 is hereby further amended by striking out the word 'and,' in the last line, and by adding at the end thereof the words of string beans, 24 pounds; of shell beans 25 pounds; of unshelled green peas, 25 pounds; of dried beans, 25 pounds; of sprouts, 12 pounds; of bean greens, 12 pounds; of kale, 12 pounds; of parsley, eight pounds—50 as to read as follows:

UNDERGROUND RIVER

Has Been Discovered in Buffalo

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 5.—An underground river has been discovered under Main street at one of the busiest corners in the city. Drillers, while locating the foundations of a new bank building, lost their drill soon after striking the 35 foot level. Tests showed that they had struck a stream of running water. The water backed up in the hole for a distance of 25 feet, or about the level of Lake Erie and the belief is expressed that the stream has its outlet in the lake.

CAPT. "BILL" DALY

WELL KNOWN SPORTING MAN IS DEAD

REVERE, April 5.—Capt. "Bill" Daly, well known in theatrical and sporting circles and formerly a select man, died at his home here at 2.05 yesterday afternoon after a long illness.

Capt. Daly was born 50 years ago in Bathurst, N. H., and his family removed to Boston when he was quite young and lived for years in the North End. Four of the five sons and the three daughters became prominently identified with the theatrical profession.

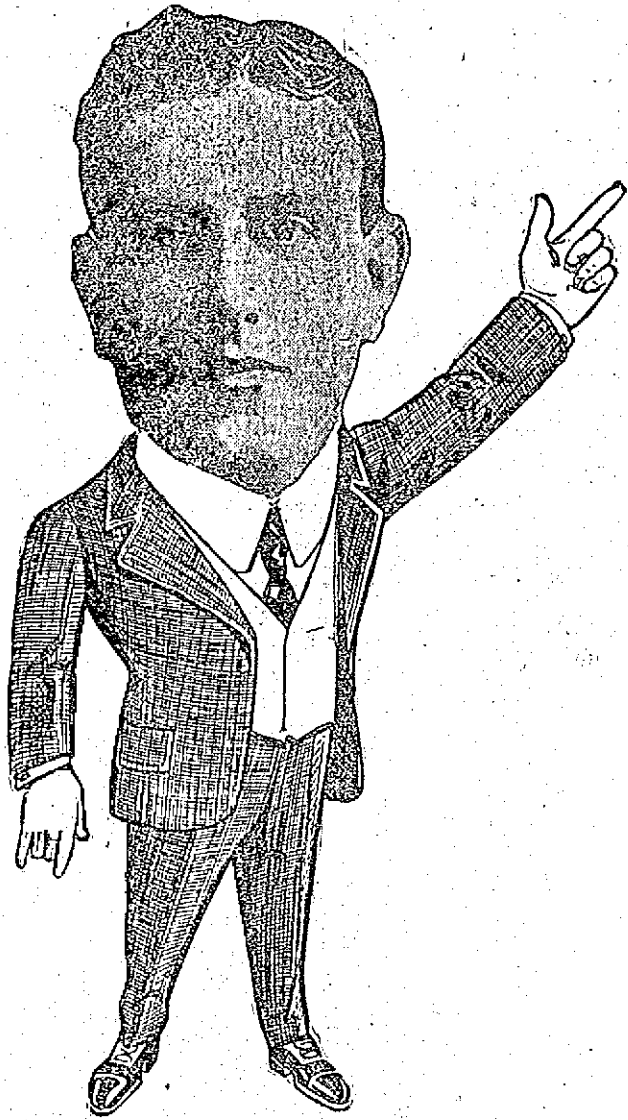

"Bill" and his brother "Tom" as young boys displayed remarkable ability as dancers and were barely in their teens when they make their debut in a vaudeville show in Waverley hall, Charlestown. Their singing and dancing act attracted the attention of Harry Bloodgood and through his influence they appeared at the Howard with great success.

With Emerson and King, another pair of performers, the Daly brothers formed a combination which was called the King-High Kickers. After a few years the act was abandoned and "Bill" took up politics in Ward 6, Boston, and "Tom" continued on the stage with his wife.

Yesterday, Holy Thursday, the mass was celebrated by the pastor, the Rev. Father Schofield, at 7 o'clock, and the church was crowded to the doors. Two hosts were consecrated, one of which was placed in the repository until this morning. The church was visited all day by a large number of people. At noon the church was crowded with the people from Lowell who are employed in the mills and who spend their noon hour in town. The young ladies who had charge of the repository were well repaid for their work, for it was beautifully decorated.

DR. FUNCK DEAD

TO HEAR FROM HIM
NEW YORK, April 5.—Members of the American Society for Psychical Research hope to obtain an authoritative communication from the other world through the death of Dr. Isaac J. Funck, who was a noted investigator of psychical phenomena and published three books on the subject of spiritualism, made elaborate arrangements some time ago to establish communication with a living man on earth following his death.

Dr. Funck's plans were announced to his friends in a statement which he made shortly after the death of Prof. William James, the Harvard psychologist.

"We have determined on a certain code of signals which no one on earth knows but the person to whom I will communicate and myself," said Dr. Funck at the time. "If he receives one of my signals after my death he will be absolutely certain that I have reached him. He will then establish communication with me, either through a designated medium, or by some means which I may find in the next world." While Dr. Funck did not indicate the identity of the person he proposed to reach from the spirit world, it is believed that he is Dr. J. B. Hyslop, editor of the Journal of the American Society of Psychical Research and Dr. Funck's closest friend and co-worker in spiritualistic investigation.

AWARDED A MEDAL

Pierre Chouinard Performed Heroic Act

Mr. Pierre Chouinard, residing at 196 Perkins street, has been awarded by the Humane society of Massachusetts for a heroic act which he performed in this city on Dec. 8, 1911, when he saved the life of the little Edouard St. George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre St. George of Moody street. The society after considering the case presented Mr. Chouinard a handsome bronze medal bearing the following inscription: "To P. Chouinard for bravery in saving life, Lowell, Dec. 8, 1911."

The accident in which two boys nearly lost their lives occurred in the Merrimack river on December 5, last year. Two young boys aged about seven years, named Payer and St. George, attempted to cross the river on its thin coat of ice. The ice gave way under them when they were near the centre and the two little fellows went down. Chouinard who was going to dinner from his work heard the boys' outcry, and despite the fact that the ice was not a half inch thick, he walked on it for some distance and then crawled to where the boys were.

PIERRE CHOUINARD

Seizing the St. George boy, he carried him along with him and on his way to shore, fell through the ice twice. The boy, however, was landed safely and after a doctor had worked over him for several hours, he revived. Chouinard went to the skin, stayed around for some time and helped to save the other boy. His cold bath was the cause of his being confined to his bed for some time, but today he is none the worse, and is very grateful to the Humane society for its mark of appreciation.

Recipes for Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

(From Art and Nature)
Of all the beauty recipes in my scrap book, here are two that have always given complete satisfaction.
Wrinkle Remover—Once ounce powdered saxolite, dissolved in 1/2 pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotion. It brings instantaneous results.
Face Peeler—Pure mercurochrome, applied at night like cold cream, only not rubbed in, wash off in the morning. It causes the worn-out scarf skin to come off in tiny, almost invisible flakes, a little each day, until the fresh young under-skin is wholly in evidence. This beautiful rose-tinted complexion thus obtained is not to be compared with one made over with cosmetics. An ounce of the wax is sufficient.
The ingredients named are inexpensive and can be found in any drug store.—Louise LeBlanc.

CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, COATED TONGUE, HEADACHE OR BAD STOMACH

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a spill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10 cent box will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomach, liver and bowels regulated and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too, occasionally.

TO GROW HAIR ON A BALD HEAD

BY A SPECIALIST
Thousands of people suffer from baldness and falling hair, who, having tried nearly every advertised hair tonic and hair grower without results, have resigned themselves to baldness and its attendant discomfort. Yet their case is not hopeless; the following simple home prescription has made hair grow after years of baldness, and is also unequalled for restoring gray hair to its original color, stopping hair from falling out, and destroying the dandruff germ. It will not make the hair greasy, and can be put on by any druggist: Day Run, 6 ounces; Lavona de Compose, 2 ounces; Menthol Crystals, one-half drachm. If you wish it perfumed, add half to one teaspoonful of To-Kalon Perfume, which unites perfectly with the other ingredients. This preparation is highly recommended by physicians and specialists, and is absolutely harmless, as it contains none of the poisonous wood alcohol so frequently found in hair tonics. Do not apply to the face or where hair is not desired.
Before publication we presented this prescription to Baker-James Drug Co., this city, and they state that they have filled it many times for their patrons who report most astonishing results from its use.

REV. H. W. HOOK

Requests to be Transferred from Lowell

Rev. H. W. Hook of St. Paul's M. E. church has asked to be transferred from this city, though the desire to have him remain is unanimous with the congregation. Mr. Hook says he appreciates the wish of his church to have him remain but he has asked the district superintendent that the transfer take place. The district superintendent will communicate with Bishop Runt, who will preside at the coming conference to be held in Springfield, next week. Last Saturday night, at a meeting in the church, Mr. Hook still held to his determination to ask for a transfer, in the face of a unanimous vote that he reconsider.

BODY OF WOMAN

Was Found in a Deserted
House

WALTHAM, April 5.—The body of an unknown woman, who had evidently died of exposure three or four days ago, was found in a deserted building on the estate of G. B. Willard on Warren street, near the Waterdown line, last evening. Medical Examiner West thinks that the woman died of exposure.

The body was discovered by Ernest Lavoie, Frank Saywood and Robert Lacombe, all about 14 years old, of California street, Newton. The police were notified and Inspector McKenna and Patrolman Thompson hurried to the scene and found the body of the woman, partly dressed.

The woman was apparently between 55 and 60 years old and her clothing, which was wet and bedraggled, consisted of a dark skirt and undershirt, gray sweater, black jacket, black hat and black shoes and stockings.

Sanford were made today before the legislature which since Wednesday afternoon has been investigating bribery charges made by County Attorney Asa A. Richardson. They were made by Attorney General Pattangall for the state and by Judge Louis C. Stearns of Bangor for counsel for the defense.

As a hearing in identical proceedings against County Attorney Richardson, which were instituted by a resolve passed yesterday forenoon was assigned to begin at 11 a. m. it was expected the arguments would be concluded before that hour and that the second investigation would begin on time. Arrangements were made for Judge B. F. Cleaves of Hallowell to defend Mr. Richardson. Judge Cleaves is counsel for the Christian Civic League of Maine and acted in place of the county attorney in prosecuting the charges against Sheriff Emery when he was arraigned before a trial justice at Kennebunk.

Robbins, aged 25, whose husband, Henry B. Robbins, is a carpenter, and whose home is at 4 Edwin street, Dorchester.

deceased. She was employed for several years prior to her marriage by Mr. Cochran in his office.

Mr. Cochran is 71 years old, lives at 137 Pleasant street, Woburn, on a fine estate, and is one of the most public spirited men in that city. He said last evening that there is no mystery in the reason for his adoption of Mrs. Robbins, who worked faithfully in his office for years and has at the same time been an ever-welcome friend and guest at his home.

"Mrs. Robbins and myself agreed," said he, "that the most practical way in which we could testify our esteem and affection for Mrs. Robbins, whose parents are dead, would be by adopting her, which we have done, with the approval of her husband."

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cochran have been married before and both are said to have children by their first marriage.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The regular meeting of Elgin lodge, N. E. O. P., was held last night. There was a large attendance and considerable business was transacted. One candidate was initiated. At the conclusion of the business meeting an entertainment program was carried out.

Odd Ladies

large attendance. The staff gave its usual drill.

Div. 1, A. O. H.

The members of Division 1, A. O. H., met in regular session last night and transacted considerable routine business. Seven candidates were initiated and 15 propositions for membership were received. Remarks were made by out-of-town members and also by Brothers Dr. Patrick Bagley, Michael Casey, Frank Brick and Dr. J. B. O'Connor. The dance committee reported progress on the arrangements for the affair and other reports were made.

Sam Walter Foss Club

The regular meeting of the Sam Walter Foss Literary club was held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. A. Wheeler, 29 South Loring street.

The feature of the meeting was an interesting talk by Miss Alice French, medical inspector of the Lowell public schools. The speaker explained her duties in connection with the position. During her remarks she referred to a number of cases when children suffering from various physical ailments were cared for under her immediate supervision. In her work she has been ably assisted by the Humane society and superintendent of schools.

At the close of the talk a social hour followed and lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Doty, Mrs. Biannon and Mrs. Hicks. The club will hold the next meeting with Mrs. F. T. Fernald, 11 Stewart street, April 17.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

P. Paul Marcel, the French Parisian actor and his company of Parisian artists will be offering for Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, at the the Opera House, presenting on this occasion Alexander Bisson's famous French comedy in three acts, entitled "Les Surprises du Mariage." This favorite French organization has recently been seen in this city in another play and they left a most excellent impression.

"THE CONFESSION"

A new play by James Hackett Reid, "The Confession," the play that startled all New York while appearing at the Bijou theatre, Broadway, on its long and successful run, will be presented at the Opera House on Friday, April 13th.

"The Confession" is a play which runs the gamut of every human emotion and is the supreme of human feeling. It will be presented with an excellent cast of players.

"THE COUNTRY BOY"

Edgar Selwyn's popular comedy, "The Country Boy," which has been described as one succession of bright lines and laughs, comes to the Opera House, Saturday, April 20. The production is from the Henry D. Harris studios which is sufficient guaranty of its merit.

BILLIE BURKE

Miss Billie Burke, who always was young enough in all conscience, they say is younger and prettier and more winsome than ever in "The Runaway," the comedy she brings to the Opera House soon. In this play Miss Burke impersonates an eighteen year old girl and she looks it. One New York critic dubbed her the Peter Pan of player ladies because she absolutely refused to grow up.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

Bert Fitzgibbon continues to make the crowd roar at Keith's for he is one of the few vaudeville performers who is real funny in the opinion of all without exception. Without make-up or costume he strolls upon the stage and re-renders all over it, talking and kidding all the time while the audience hasn't a chance to stop roaring. "The Bandit" is a play which all agree is beautiful. It has a human interest story and is expertly acted by E. J. Hawley and Frances Haight. The Berrens have a delightful musical act and a most pleasing surprise. One of the pair, the violinist, comes out as the most charming female that has been seen on the stage in a long time and after getting all men in love with her she takes off the wig and presents herself as a man. The pair perform on piano and violin. Chick and Chicklet do the greatest bicycle act of the season. They ride every old kind of a wheel and ride them well and also have considerable comedy in their act. The Loretta Twins have an unusual act on the triple bars and trampoline, something entirely different from the general run of athletic exhibitions. Russell and Gray do a neat singing act. Mr. Russell singing in three distinct voices. Isabella Fiske and her clever boy assistant offer a novel singing act. Item Brandt, the cartoonist, draws pictures with lightning-like rapidity. Then there are the pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Today, Good Friday, the Merrimack Square Theatre will be closed. This is the second occasion in two years that this playhouse has closed its doors, the first being a year ago today. The last of the week's series will be given as usual tomorrow with the night performance by the members of Our Stock company making their departure from the city after 31 weeks of successful presentations of high-class plays in which its members have attained to advantage and by their unusually clever work have won the friendship of the many patrons of this playhouse. Saturday night will be "Good Bye Night" and a large crowd is expected to be on hand to bid their formal adieu to Kendal Weston, Miss Constance Jackson and the other members ere their parting. The presentation will be one of the brightest playlets in which this aggregation of entertainers has appeared since their coming to Lowell. "The Choice" has been given here once before and proved such a favorite that it bears repeating. It has many pleasing features and should prove a fitting close to the very successful run by Mr. Weston and his assistants.

The other members of the bill consist of Aurelianna, female impersonator in the latest Parisian costume, featuring the Oriental Salome dance of death; Alice Duncan, known as "The Green Girl from Greenville"; and Koppell and Tyson in a mixture of good entertainment. The photo-plays for the last part of the week are among the best shown this season. Watch for tomorrow's announcement of next week's bill. It will contain many interesting numbers. Box office telephone 2033.

FIRE IN TAUNTON

Lives of Several Persons
Endangered

TAUNTON, April 5.—In a fire which gutted a house owned by Jacob Goldstein, the owner's young son, and William Robinson of Fall River were taken from a third-story window by firemen. Milton, Clinton and Lillian Goldstein, Mr. Goldstein's other children, were also asleep when the fire was discovered, but were carried to safety by Mrs. Goldstein, Miss Ida Forest of Fall River, a visitor, and Miss Bessie Thompson, employed by the Goldstein family.

The fire started in the basement and getting into the partitions burned to the roof. When Louis J. Antine, who lives on the second floor, smelled smoke and opened the door to the basement he found a mass of flames. The occupants lost no time in getting out and an alarm was rung in from box 71.

The roof and third floor were badly damaged while the remainder of the house was drenched with water. The loss may reach $2500 and is covered by insurance.

Considerable damage was also done by a fire which started in the plover room at the Cor Mills in Taunton this afternoon. The mill force tackled the fire first, but it proved too much for them and the city department was called.

JOE THOMAS

RETURNS TO LOWELL

"Joe" Thomas Decides to Stay Here

"Joe" Thomas, one of the cleanest and also one of the top notch middle-weight boxers of the country, who arrived in this city from California last week has decided to make Lowell his home. Joe is married to a sister of the Gardner brothers and as Mrs. Thomas preferred this section of the country "Joe" sold out his interests in the Golden State and came here. He has been in that vicinity for many years and was one of the most popular residents of "Frisco." He has also done considerable travelling and is known from coast to coast. He doesn't use intoxicants. Upon coming here this time he was invited by the president of the Lowell Social and Athletic club, Jimmy Gardner, his brother-in-law, to show the members what he could do and he has agreed to appear at the next meeting of the organization on Friday evening, April 12. This will undoubtedly be a pleasing announcement to his friends here. The news that he is to become a citizen of the city of Lowell is also pleasing "info" not only to the sporting fraternity, but to all. On next Friday night Thomas will try conclusions with Terry Martin of Philadelphia in the main bout at the meeting of the club. Here are two of the best men that can be secured. Both are among the leaders in their class. Thomas at one time held the middle-weight title of the world and is still a claimant of that much disputed title. Martin who appeared here a short time ago is also a candidate for the title and when the two meet a good bout is sure to result. In his last bout here, Martin was not put to a test, but during the short time that he was in the milling he was there strong. Thomas is training hard for the bout, not only to win but to show those who will now be his fellow citizens that he is the same clever boxer who fought here a few years ago.

Thomas is doing road work over the old route that Jimmy Gardner used. He runs from the Gardner home in upper Cornhill street to Billerica every morning, under the direction of Billy Gardner. In the afternoon he boxes with Jimmy and Young Stone. Martin is training at the Hub and expects to be in great trim for the meeting. Along with this great bout the other numbers on the program for next week are hummers. In the semi-final of 8 rounds, Young Stone, who is training with Thomas will meet Kid Roach of Boston. These are both clever boys. A short time ago they met at the club and gave a great exhibition. The bout went the entire distance and while Stone got the award it was very close. As both requested a return engagement, Matchmaker Gardner signed them up. The first preliminary will be furnished by "Tommy Doyle of the Acre" and Kid "Teaser" who comes from Centralville. These two boys had at it once before at the club and while Doyle got the verdict he had to go home. Both fought gamely and showed to good advantage. The next "prelim" will present Gardner Brooks of Ayer City and Spike Kennedy of the Acre. This pair is scheduled for six rounds and should be a good one. The meeting will be held in Mathew hall next Friday evening. This week's meeting was postponed in recognition of Good Friday.

Latin Meet Tomorrow

On Saturday afternoon the basketball season for 1912 will begin when the Textile school team clashes with the strong Cambridge Latin school team on the textile campus. Coach Frank Brady, the old Dartmouth first-sacker, has had his men on the field for the past week and the boys are now rounding into shape in fine style. The team this year is captained by Charles Cleary '13 who played a smashing game in the left field on the 1911 team.

After the usual cut of the squad by Coach Brady, the following men were

CENTRAL ST. SEWER

The Work on it Was Begun
This Morning

Work on the sewer petitioned for by Bradley Bros. in Central street was begun this morning. The sewer in question is for the purpose of draining the new Bradley building and will extend across Central street to the manhole in Hurd street. The work was begun in Hurd street and inasmuch as it will necessitate the digging up of the new paving in Central street and result in general inconvenience to travel, the commissioner of streets and highways has decided to work two shifts on the job working from 5 a. m. to 10 p. m. The expense of laying the sewer from the centre of Central street to the building will be borne by the petitioners. The engineers have estimated the cost of the sewer at $2100 and about $500 of that amount will be paid by the petitioners and on account of the improvement of the Hamilton wall property, so called, the city will receive a big increase in tax revenue.

After Bob Veal
Dr. Hamblat, inspector of meats for the city of Lowell, is keeping an eye out for hot veal in Lowell. He was tipped off that a big consignment had been shipped alive from New York and that the calves were to be killed in the vicinity of Boston and shipped here and to other cities. Dr. Hamblat says there is a lot of veal used in this city around Easter and that holds good, he says, in all cities where there are any considerable number of foreigners. According to Massachusetts law veal must be at least four weeks old while the federal law says three weeks, but whatever the law it is well to shy clear of hot veal.

GOVERNOR WILSON

TO SPEND TWO DAYS MORE IN ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, April 5.—Governor Wilson of New Jersey arrived from Washington, D. C., this morning, and prepared to close his Illinois campaign with a two days' speaking tour of the state.

He is scheduled to visit 15 cities in the hope of carrying on Tuesday the state democratic preference primary for president against Champ Clark.

He was met at the railroad station by a committee of friends and later held a short conference with his Illinois campaign managers. At 9:15 o'clock he left on a special train for a tour of Illinois towns.

NEW WORLD'S RECORD

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 5.—A new world's record in night torpedo firing was made last night in this harbor by the United States destroyers, Tripps and Monaghan. Every torpedo sent from the tubes of these vessels struck the bull's eye of the target.

The entire group of five vessels made an average of 70 per cent. of hits, which is above the average for even daylight firing under favorable weather conditions.

The body was viewed by Medical Examiner J. V. Meigs, who pronounced death due to natural causes.

CHELMSFORD

J. F. Hammond, watchman at the forest fire observation station at Robin's hill, has started to work for the season, which extends from now until the middle of November.

The observation platform on top of the 30 foot steel tower, is about to be enclosed with glass with a steel roof, for the proper protection of the watchman from the inclemencies of the weather. This room, which will be about 8 feet square, will be equipped with field glasses, maps, report blanks, and a time clock. Another telephone will also be placed upon the ground. These stations 14 in number, located in the highest points in the state, were only in operation for a month last fall, but during that time, 200 fires were detected and aided somewhat by the rainfall, none burned over three acres.

Lyman A. Ryan, the five year old son of Lyman Ryan, the station agent at the South village, met with a serious accident while playing in the barn on Wednesday evening, falling and sustaining a fracture of the right thigh.

The auction sale of the town teams, harnesses, wagons, etc., held at the William Fletcher place on the North road yesterday afternoon, attracted a large number. The pair of bay horses was purchased by George W. Spaulding of Westford and the single horse by a Lowell party. The sale was conducted by Auctioneer John M. Farrell.

THE BALL PLAYERS

ARE REPORTING TO THE LOWELL TEAM

The ball players continue to arrive and every mail seems to blow one in. Upon arriving they first make their way to the office of the club in the Hildreth building and have a talk and then attach their John Hancock to the blue print. Yesterday there was a good sized squad out at the ball grounds and it is expected that this afternoon some real work will be indicated in. Heretofore the squad was not large enough to have a game, but this afternoon if those expected get here, a game will be played by the vets and recruits.

The squad yesterday was composed of the following: Walter Warwick, pitcher, Boston; "Pop" Rising, outfielder, New Britain, Conn.; Wesley Lund, pitcher, Hollis, N. H.; G. A. Golden, pitcher, Manchester, N. H.; R. W. Austin, pitcher, Sabattus, Me.; Roy L. Silver, first base, Yuma, Arizona; John McClelland, pitcher, Westbrook.

The Mischief Maker

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM
(Copyright, 1912, by Little, Brown & Co.)

CHAPTER I.
SYMPATHY AND SELFISHNESS.

THE girl who was dying lay in an invalid chair piled up with cushions in a shaded corner of the lawn. The woman who had come to visit her had deliberately turned away from the sunshine and the field of buttercups behind them was the little sanatorium, a gray stone villa built in the style of a chateau, overgrown with creepers, and with terraced lawns stretching down to the sunny corner to which the girl had been carried earlier in the day.

There were flowers everywhere—beds of hyacinths and borders of purple and yellow crocuses. A lilac tree was bursting into blossom, the breeze was soft and full of life. Below the villa, the stars of which the woman had spoken, bowed the Seine, and in the distance one could see the outskirts of Paris.

"The doctor says I am better," the girl whispered plaintively. "This morning he was quite cheerful. I suppose he knows, but it is strange that I should feel so weak—weaker than I do at times. And my cough—it tears me to pieces all the time."

"The doctor must know, dear Lucie," she declared. "Our own feelings so often mean nothing at all."

"Yes," she agreed, "the doctor knows—most know. I see it in his manner every time he comes here. In his heart, he is adding her voice, 'he must know that I am going to die.'"

Her eyes seemed to have stiffened in their sockets to have become dilated. Her lips trembled, but her eyes remained steadfast.

"Oh, madame," she sobbed, "is it not cruel that one should die like this? I am so young. I have seen so little of life. It is not just, madame—it is not just."

"I will not talk of death, dear," she said. "Doctors are so wonderful nowadays. There are so few diseases which they cannot cure. They even cure the old people who are in the grave. Besides, you are so young. One does not die at 19. Tell me about this man—Eugene you called him? Is he never coming back to you—not even when you were in the hospital?"

The girl began to tremble. "Not a word," she murmured. "You are sure that he has your letters? He knows that you are out here and alone?"

The woman by her side rose up. Lucie caught her by the skirt. "Madame, you are not going yet?" she pleaded. "Am I selfish? You have not stayed with me so long as yesterday, and I am so lonely."

The woman's face hardened a little. She was going to find that man, she repeated. "I am his address. I want to bring him to you."

The girl's hand upon her skirt tightened. "Sit down," she begged. "Do not leave me. Indeed it is useless. He knows. He does not choose to come. He is like that. G. madame! I have learned my lesson. I know now that love is a vain thing. Men do not often really feel it. They come to us when we please them, but afterward that does not count. I suppose we were meant to be sacrificed. I have given up thinking of Eugene. He is afraid, perhaps, of the infection. I think that I would sooner go out of life as I lie here, cold and unloved, than have him come to me unwillingly."

Mme. Christopher—She had another name, but there were few occasions on which she cared to use it—was driven back to Paris in accordance with her murmured word of instruction, at a pace which took little heed of police regulations or even of safety. Through the peaceful lanes, across the hills into the suburbs and into the city itself she passed at a speed which was scarcely slackened even when she turned into the boulevard, which was her destination. Glancing at the slip of paper which she held in her hand, she pulled the check-string before a tall black of buildings. She hurried inside, ascended two flights of stairs and rang the bell of a door immediately opposite her.

A moment later she was ushered into a sitting room, a man's apartment, untidy, reeking with cigarette smoke and stale air. There were photographs and souvenirs of women everywhere. The windows were fast closed and the curtains half drawn. A man who stood upon the hearthrug was of medium height, dark, with close-cropped hair and a black, drooping mustache.

His first glance at his visitor, as the door opened, was one of surprise. "Madame?" he inquired. "You are Monsieur Estienne?" he bowed. He was very much impressed and he endeavored to assume a manner.

DRACUT

Notices have been posted in Dracut announcing the annual meeting of the Dracut water supply district, which will be held in Grange hall, Dracut Centre, on next Tuesday. The call for the meeting consists of 12 articles.

The first three articles call for the election of a moderator, clerk and auditor respectively and article four is to hear the report of the water commissioners. The next article calls for the election of a water commissioner for a term of three years.

Article five calls for the raising by taxation of $2000 for the payment of two water bonds. Under the next article $3000 is asked, the same to be borrowed and used in anticipation of taxes. Article eight, that $500 be raised for construction work. Article nine calls for an extension of the water main in Vermont avenue, while the following article asks that $25 be raised to carry out the extension mentioned under the previous article. Article 13, also has a direct bearing on articles 9 and 10, for it calls for the transfer of the appropriation previously made for an extension in Sladen street to meet the expense incurred by the extension of the main in Vermont avenue, the transferred appropriation to be used together with the amount mentioned under article 10.

Article 14, calls for an extension of the water main in Hildreth street from the residence of Albert Hamblett to the residence of Mrs. Lucilla Willoughby, and the next article (12) asks that $300 be raised to carry out the provisions of the previous article.

It was the aim of the man with whom she spoke to be considered mad. A perfect and invincible selfishness had enabled him to reach the topmost heights of callousness, and to remain there without affectation. "I am sorry for the little girl," he said, "but she is dying. I have lost sight of her lately. But as to my going out to see her, why, that is absurd. I hate illness. I hate death. The woman looked at him steadily, looking at him as though she had come into contact with some strange creature.

"Do you understand what it is I am saying?" she demanded. "This girl is once your little friend, is it not so? It is your duty to see that she is not left alone. You have held her in your arms in life. Don't you see that it is your duty to cheer her a little way on this last dark journey?"

The man threw away his cigarette and moved to the mantelpiece, where he helped himself to a fresh one from the box. "Madame," he said, "I perceive that you are a sentimentalist."

She did not speak—she could not. She only looked at him more and more. "Death," he continued, lighting his cigarette, "is an ugly thing. If it came to me I should probably be quite as much afraid—perhaps more—than any one else. But it has not come to me just yet. It has come, you tell me, to little Lucie. Well, I am sorry, but there is nothing I can do about it. I have no intention whatever of making myself miserable. I do not wish to see her. I do not wish to look upon death—perhaps I should forget it. If it were not, madame," he added, with a bow and a meaning glance from his dark eyes, "that you bring with you something of your own so well worth looking upon, I could almost find myself regretting your visit."

She still regarded him fixedly. There was in her face something of that shrinking curiosity with which one looks upon an unclean and horrible thing. "That is your answer?" she murmured.

The man had little understanding and he replied boldly: "It is my answer, without a doubt. Lucie, if what you tell me is true, as I do not for a moment doubt, is dying from a disease the ravages of which are hideous to watch, and which many people believe, too, to be infectious. Let me advise you, madame, to learn also a little wisdom. Let me beg of you not to be led away by the efforts of sentiment, however picturesque and delightful they may seem. The only life that is worth considering is our own. The only death that we need fear is our own. We ought to live like that."

The woman stood quite still. She was tall and she was slim. Her face was exquisite. She was famous throughout the city for her beauty. The man's eyes dwelt upon her and the eternal expression crept slowly into his face. He seemed to understand nothing of the shivering horror with which she was regarding him.

"If it were upon any other errand," madame," he continued, leaning toward her, "believe, I pray you, that no one would leave this room to become your escort more willingly than I."

She turned away. "You will not leave me already?" he begged.

"Monsieur," she declared, as she threw open the door before he could reach it. "If I thought that there were many men like you in the world, if I thought—"

She never finished her sentence. The emotions which had seized her were entirely inexpressible. He shrugged his shoulders.

"My dear lady," he said, "let me assure you that there is not a man of the world in this city who, if he speaks honestly, would not feel exactly as I do. Allow me at least to see you to your automobile."

"If you dare to move," she muttered, "if you dare—"

DON'T INVITE SICKNESS

This Blood Is a Standing Invitation to Every Disease That Is Prevalent.

This, impure blood is an invitation to sickness. The blood is at work, day and night, to maintain the health and any lack of strength or purity in the blood is a weakness in the defense against disease. Anemia is the doctor's name for lack of blood. There may be an actual loss in the quantity of the blood or one or more of its constituents may be lacking. Its earliest symptom is pallor. Anemia is particularly common in young girls from 14 to 17 years of age. It is not confined to them, for it is this same lack of blood that prevents full recovery after the grip, fevers, malaria and operations and is present in old age and in persons who have been under an unusual physical or mental strain.

If you are suffering from anemia you can profit by the experience of Mrs. H. J. Albert, of No. 3244 Glendora avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio, who says: "I was in a terrible condition, all run down, nervous and hysterical some years ago. I had no appetite and was troubled with gas on the stomach. I was almost a skeleton and weighed only 100 pounds. I had no desire to live. I couldn't sleep well, was pale and yellow and there was no color in my lips at all. There seemed to be a pressure on the top of my head. I had palpitation of the heart and was short of breath on going up stairs or upon the least exertion. I doctored incessantly and was told that I lacked blood. The doctor gave me tonic after tonic and advised me to take plenty of exercise and fresh air. He finally said he could do nothing for me. I felt very much discouraged. One day I came across a pamphlet in which I learned about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. After taking four boxes I felt much better, in fact like a new person. I felt cheerful and happy. I began to take on flesh. I took twelve boxes and the change in me was something marvelous. I looked the picture of health. I think Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are the greatest medicine for a general breakdown of the system."

Send for free booklet, "Diseases of the Blood."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Buy Flour And Receive Money Back

GREAT DELIGHT AMONG LOWELL WOMEN

Here's what one Lowell woman said: "This new plan of getting $1.00 worth of discount checks with a $1.00 bag of MONEYBACK FLOUR is great. Lowell merchants redeem these checks and in this way my flour costs me nothing. The dealers are glad to have you bring in the MONEYBACK coupons. Now, that I can buy MONEYBACK FLOUR in this way, I figure to save over $50 this year—and that will help a lot towards buying my clothes. The Flour is the best I ever used."

Here's How You Can Do It

Go to your grocer and ask for a bag of MONEYBACK FLOUR. In the bag you will find a book of 20 discount checks. Each check will entitle you to five cents discount on every dollar's worth of goods purchased in the stores mentioned below. Every time you buy a dollar's worth of goods you are reducing the original cost of your flour by 5c. For instance, if you buy a hat for $2.00, you receive from the merchant a rebate of 10c (and you still have 18 5-cent coupons left to redeem). When you buy a $15.00 suit you receive 75c back, and so on until you have received back the entire $1.00. This makes your MONEYBACK FLOUR cost you nothing. The range of articles you can buy covers nearly everything. You would be surprised how quickly you can use these discount checks. In the majority of cases you will use them all up before your bag of flour is gone. The wise housewife can obtain all the flour she uses for nothing. These discount coupons are transferable. Anyone can profit by them.

Here's How We Can Do It

Some merchants pay big money to advertise their business in newspapers, street cars, booklets and so on. Other merchants pay out money for advertising in other ways. It is good advertising for merchants to agree to redeem MONEYBACK coupons. The discount coupons enclosed in the bag of MONEYBACK FLOUR bring business to their stores, and they are willing for the advertising they get in this way to allow 5c to you an every dollar's worth of goods purchased, which helps you pay for the flour. Remember, FIRST, that we as large flour merchants receive full wholesale price from the grocer for MONEYBACK FLOUR and that, although you can reduce to nothing the cost that you pay for MONEYBACK FLOUR, THE DISCOUNTS WHICH ENABLE YOU TO DO THIS ARE GIVEN BY LOWELL MERCHANTS AND NOT BY US. SECOND, that MONEYBACK FLOUR is the highest grade flour you can buy. Every sack of MONEYBACK FLOUR is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction. It is made of selected wheat, and every detail looked after to make it a perfect flour. Your baking will prove how good it is. If at any time you feel that MONEYBACK FLOUR is not equal to the best flour you have ever used, take back the unused quantity to the grocer and he will give you the money you paid for the whole bag.

BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING, BOSTON MASS.

P. S.—Practically every grocer in Lowell and vicinity carries MONEYBACK FLOUR or will get it for you.

despeaks a radically differing phase of affairs in the two sections of the republic. The states of Puebla and Morelos are people with the folk of the "old Mexico." A dozen generations of exploitation, witnesses of successful regimes of banditry and alien interference to established popular authority, produce a race in whose imagination there can linger no image of even approximate republicanism. In action they are not unlike the American backwoods mountaineer, who settles his own questions of justice and keeps a gun in readiness for the advancement of his personal interests. Unlettered and out of touch with the rest of the world, the Mexican backwoodsman needs no captain to lead him on forays of plunder. Taking away both Zapata and the pressure of government authority, conditions in Puebla and Morelos would probably be very little different from what they now are.

But northern Mexico breathes a different air. Its people, men and land-lord alike, have lived in the middle too long and felt the freedom of the open spaces too long not to have developed a different individuality. Careless of the polish of civilization, of which they know much through contact with the busy life across the Rio Grande, they yet have a broader sense of genuine liberty and are more amenable to authority of their own making. Physically, as well as mentally, they differ from the south; they have more money, better clothes; they must work harder for a living in a more rigorous climate. They have never succumbed to the curse of landlordism as have their countrymen and the "Chilhuahuense" has been a freer man from time immemorial. Consequently, with a modicum of liberty in his grasp, the northerner knows better what to do with it and will fight more intelligently for its retention. This has been the main secret of the difference between the Orozco army and that of Zapata. From general down to humblest rank follows a difference of history characterizes the two bodies.

SENATE WANTS TO KNOW IF JAPAN HAS ATTEMPTED TO GAIN Foothold IN MAGDALENA BAY

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Preliminary steps have been taken by Acting Secretary of State Wilson to comply with the Lodge resolution passed by the senate calling on the president for information in regard to the alleged attempt by Japan or Japanese interests to gain a foothold on the Mexican coast near Magdalena Bay. Both Baron China, the Japanese ambassador, and Senor Crespo, the Mexican ambassador, denied that Japan had made any overtures for any sort of concession in Mexico. It was regarded as significant, however, that there were no denials that Japanese citizens, representing steamship companies or other enterprises, have endeavored to obtain concessions which might be calculated for use by the Japanese government at an opportune moment. State department officials decline to admit that there is any important evidence in their possession indicating that the Japanese government is endeavoring to obtain a naval base in the western hemisphere. It is admitted, however, that about a year ago the Diaz government was interrogated on the subject, and denial was made that there had been any attempt on the part of Japan to gain a concession. It was said then that since the Mexican government felt obliged to cease granting concessions to the United States for target practice in Magdalena Bay it would not grant like concession to any other government.

DRIVEN FROM HOMES

Thousands of Refugees Being Sheltered at Hickman, Ky.

HICKMAN, Ky., April 5.—A picture of the tented city which shelters 3000 of utter desolation is presented by this homeless, helpless persons or the appended towns whether it be a view of a parentless waste of muddy water that stretches out before them and the threat of levees on which men are working with the utmost energy to thwart the river's expanding.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KEEP CLEAN WITH CARBONOL

SOMETIMES soap-and-water cleanliness is enough. Sometimes aseptic cleanliness is absolutely necessary, and in such cases you should mix Carbonol in the water used in cleaning. A dash of Carbonol in a pail of water gives the whole mixture powerful disinfecting qualities. Garbage cans and all repositories of refuse should be cleaned with it to kill the germs, to keep away flies and to suppress odors. Carbonol is equally useful in general cleaning. Put it in the water when you mop the floors or wash the woodwork. Use it especially in cleaning the sickroom where there has been contagious disease. Sprinkle it in the cellar before sweeping and the musty, smelly will disappear. A sample bottle with booklet will be sent free on request.

MR. ALSOP DENIES THAT HE AND YOUNG BRIDE HAVE DISAGREED

FOUND NOT GUILTY

Mrs. Pike Was Charged With Violating the Milk Law

One of the most interesting cases that has been brought to the attention of the public in police court was tried this morning when Mrs. Jeannette W. Pike, of Tewksbury, was arraigned before Judge Francis A. Fisher on a complaint charging her with having violated the milk law by having in her possession, with intent to sell, milk to which water had been added. Inasmuch as there were two expert chemists, Prof. Louis A. Olney of the Lowell Textile school and Milk Inspector Melvin F. Master, and also that the counsel in the case were familiar with the analysis of milk, many technical and interesting points were brought out. The court after considering the case found the defendant not guilty and ordered her discharged.

Milk Inspector Master was the first witness for the government. He testified that after having analyzed samples of milk which had been taken from Charles H. Smith's wagon and learning that the milk had been secured at the Pike farm in Tewksbury went to the farm on the 9th of March and took eight samples. Upon making an analysis he said he found that water had been added. Questioned relative to the manner in which he made the analysis he gave a very technical explanation and said that approximately from eight to ten per cent. of water could be added without detection.

On cross-examination Mr. Master said that he took a sample from each can. So far as he knew the cows had been milked in the morning and according to his experience he felt that the cows milked in the morning produced a higher grade of milk than those milked at night.

Charles H. Smith, a local milkman, testified to having purchased milk from the defendant and was present on the day that Inspector Master took the samples.

The government rested its case at this point. Constable Ezra F. Mansur testified that on March 22 he took some samples of milk at the Pike farm. In all there were six samples and he said that he knew from his own observation no water had been added. He gave testimony relative to the name, age and size of the different cows. He later left the samples at the Textile school to be analyzed by Prof. Olney.

Louis A. Olney, professor of chemistry and acting at the Textile school, was next called to testify. He referred to his experience and added that he had received a degree as an analyst. He testified that on March 12 he received eight samples of milk and after making an analysis formed an opinion that the milk had been watered. Subsequently he went to the Pike farm. He was accompanied by one of his assistants and took several samples. He later analyzed them, but while they were below the standard he did not learn that any water had been added.

William Corey, who has charge of the cows at the defendant's farm, said that water was never added to the milk.

Key Templeton, who is also in the employ of the defendant, said that he poured the milk into the cans on the day that the milk inspector was present but that no water had been added.

Daniel W. Pike, son of the defendant, said he knew nothing of what had happened, but was present when Mr. Master took the samples.

Able arguments were made by counsel after which the court found the defendant not guilty and ordered her to be discharged.

Fines of $10 Imposed

William H. Bruce who was found guilty of the larceny of a micrometer and pair of calipers, the property of James J. Norton, last June, was brought into court this morning and fined $10.

Serious Offense

The case of George A. Richards and Clara Dion, charged with lewd and lascivious cohabitation, was called but at the request of counsel the disposition of the case was continued until tomorrow. The man was held under $500 bonds but the woman was released on her personal recognizance.

Case of Larceny

Joseph Hawkins pleaded guilty to the larceny of 77 pounds of brass, the property of the Boston & Maine R. R. He was arrested by Lieut. Martin Maher and after the latter told his story Hawkins was found guilty and ordered to pay a fine of $10.

Destroyed Clothing

John Gregoriou pleaded guilty to having maliciously and wilfully destroyed bed clothing, the property of Georgianna Paquette. The complainant conducts a lodging house at 294 Moody street and Gregoriou, housed with her. It appeared from the testimony offered that the defendant was boisterous on the morning of the 24th of March and when he was told to be quiet he argued about the money which he had paid for a week's rent. The woman was willing to return a portion of his money and handed him a dollar which he threw on the floor. Subsequently he went up to the room which he occupied and cut the bed clothing with scissors of a knife. Inasmuch as the defendant was willing to make restitution the disposition of the case was postponed until Monday.

Drunken Offenders

William E. Dunn, charged with drunkenness, was given a suspended sentence of one month in jail and placed in the custody of the probation officer for six months.

John J. O'Connor was sentenced to the state farm and John C. Driscoll, a parole man, will be returned to the state farm.

George H. Whitney was sentenced to one month in jail.

William J. McCann, August Headerman and John O'Neil were fined $5 each. Three first offenders were fined $2 each.

COTTON MILLS STRIKE

Continued

To induce the workers to refuse to send the yarn to Lowell and in this way close the local plant.

Allice George in reporting for the Assisi, said her people will be in the picket line Monday morning with their musical instruments.

The Portuguese protested against the mayor's letter and they say they will stick to the strike until the last minute. If they are evicted from their homes, they propose to erect tents on a tract of land in Waverst owned by one of their own, and live there.

The Polish delegate told of a meeting of his people which was held yesterday after the mayor's letter had been received.

A letter was received this morning from the Lawrence branch of the I. W. W. which stated a mass meeting will be held in the latter city tomorrow evening, and the people from the down river city urge the committee to send delegates to speak and collect funds at the said meeting.

Mr. Trautman was the next and last speaker. He said in part: "It appears that from the beginning of the strike two mills have large orders to fill. One has a government contract and if the goods are not delivered in time the mill people will be obliged to forfeit a certain sum of money. The other mill has orders for a year and a half in advance and cannot afford to be shut down."

"I do not know about the strike which occurred in Lowell in 1903, but I know of conditions which existed in Fall River during the last strike, when the operatives were cheated of their bread. However I am satisfied there is not one soul in Lowell who is willing to be cheated out of this fight. No labor official can send workers to work by command. There will be no settlement until the agents come through the channel they themselves proposed, and meet the employees in conference."

In Clinton the agents have offered 12 per cent increase and also give the weavers the privilege of weighing their own cloth, but they refused to establish the fining system among the weavers."

Mr. Trautman closed his remarks by urging the strikers to remain firm and stick to their demands, which mean victory in the end.

THE LOOMFIXERS' UNION

DISCUSSED MAYOR'S LETTER

The Loomfixers' union held a largely attended meeting in their hall in Runge building this morning, and they were addressed by John Golden. Previous to the meeting the executive council of the United Textile Workers of America met at 22 Middle street and discussed the mayor's letter to that body. The letter was then referred to the Loomfixers' meeting and there again a general discussion followed. Finally the executive committee was instructed to form a reply to the said letter and present to the mayor this afternoon.

THE MULE SPINNERS

HELD MEETING THIS MORNING

The Mule Spinners' union met in their hall, 22 Middle street, this morning and the letter sent to them by the mayor was read. No action was taken, however, and the letter was referred to this evening's meeting when the national secretary, Urban Fleming, of Holyoke, will be present. At this meeting also the question of the Loomfixers returning to work to the Hamilton mill will be taken up.

GOLDEN TO REPLY

TO THE MAYOR'S LETTER

In regard to the mayor's letter to the Textile Workers of America, Mr. John Golden when seen this morning by a Sun reporter, said he had no statement to make, but that the executive council of the organization would take up the matter this afternoon and reply to the mayor.

Mr. Carl Wyatt, national organizer for the American Federation of Labor when interviewed about the letter sent by the mayor, said this morning: "The mayor has a right to send a letter which we may not approve, but we shall reply to him."

Milady's Toilet Table

By MRS. DILLIE

A simple home treatment that keeps the hair fine, clean, fluffy and glossy is dry shampooing once or twice a week with this. To prepare the powder, put a cupful of cornmeal in a fruit jar and mix with it a small amount of talcum powder. Sprinkle a little on the head and brush it out thoroughly, and it will take all dirt, dandruff and excess oil with it.

A luxurious everyday toilet necessity of the choicest materials can be made at home at little cost by simply dissolving an original package of mayonaise in a half-pint witch hazel. Cover the face, neck and arms with this solution, and its purity, fineness and velvety softness will prove desirable and refreshing to the most sensitive skin. It beautifies without that "powdery" appearance and "holds" as no powder does.

A splendid remedy for sores, skin eruptions, pimples, eczema and similar beauty destroyers is Mother's Salve. It heals cuts, burns and scalds without leaving a scar, and is recommended for obstinate skin. It is antiseptic as well as healing and tends to prevent blood poisoning.

Probably nothing is more humiliating to a woman than hairs on her face. However, these can be quickly removed by applying delicate paste. Mix enough powdered delonise with water to cover the hairs; leave on for two minutes, then wipe off, wash the skin, and the hairs will be gone.

How to Have A Beautiful Complexion

One of our lady readers who found that her skin was becoming harsh and dry from the use of powders, rouge and creams, sends us the formula below. She states that the simple, harmless, and inexpensive lotion made therefrom softened her skin, and so greatly enhanced the beauty of her complexion that she has entirely done away with other preparations which she had been accustomed to use. This lotion can easily be prepared at home or by any good druggist. It calls for two ounces of Rose Water, one drachm Tincture of Benzoin, and two ounces Flowers of Oxid.

Mix together and apply night and morning with the hands or use a soft cloth or sponge. Always shake well before using. Our obliging correspondent asks that her name be withheld for personal reasons, but nevertheless gives us the permission to publish her letter for the benefit of other readers. She adds that this formula was given her by a woman 60 years old whose youthful complexion and almost total absence of wrinkles were a source of wonder and admiration to all who knew her.

Reference to the Hiker-Jaynes drug store of this city, brings out the statement that these ingredients are all regularly carried in their stock and that they can fill the prescription at any time.

In the strike situation and voiced their disapproval by sending the following letter to The Sun for publication:

"It is understood that the mayor of Lowell has requested the strikers of Lowell to go back to work and he would settle the strike, if not satisfactory the workers could come out again. At a meeting of the Portuguese strikers, the house, which was crowded, voted unanimously against officials of Lowell interfering in the battle for better living conditions of the workers of Lowell."

The workers will fight their own battle with their masters and will not go back until their demands are granted.

C. L. Pingree, Chairman Press Com. Lowell Strikers.

GOOD FRIDAY

Observed in the Catholic Churches Today

In all the local Catholic churches last evening the services were attended by large congregations. At the Sacred Heart church the sermon on the Passion was preached by Rev. James McDermott, O. M. I. In St. Peter's and the other churches the Tenebrae was chanted.

After the services the people of the different Catholic churches in the city visited the churches and offered prayer. It is customary to visit three churches on Holy Thursday. The crowds of people that were seen coming and going from the churches during the evening were very large. In all the churches the repositories were decked with flowers and there were numerous lighted candles. The repositories were arranged at the side altars, the main altars were all stripped and the tabernacle doors were open, denoting that the sacrament was not there, but reposing in the altars on the left. While the faithful visited the church, the many altar boys served alternately as a guard of honor at their respective churches. The Holy Thursday service is one of the most impressive in the Catholic church and on that day every one of the faithful plans to visit at least one church during the day.

Today is Good Friday, the day on which Christ died on the cross. It is called good, because by His death He showed His great love for man and reopened the gates of heaven. In all the churches, during the entire day the impressive services were held. At the morning service the priests wore the black vestments, the altars were decorated with flowers and the crucifixes in black and six candles stuck. The Passion, according to St. John is said. In the prayers of supplication and petition the churches were intercession for all classes of men. The unveiling of the crucifix is a solemn act of reparation to Jesus Christ for the ignominy of His passion by venerating the cross. Thrice the people kneel—the priest chanting the beautiful words: "Behold the wood of the cross, on which hung the salvation of the world." By this uncovering of the cross, too, is represented the gradual preaching to Jews and Gentiles the mystery of the crucifixion. Then follows the ceremony of kissing the crucifix, after which is the mass of the precelebrated. The blessed sacrament is brought back in procession from the altar of repose to the high altar. On this day alone the church suspends the offering of the holy sacrifice of the mass. There is no consecration.

The blessed sacrament received by the celebrant was consecrated for the resurrection on Holy Thursday. After the services the altars are again stripped, the sanctuary is empty, its light is gone, the pictures are veiled, the naked cross stands alone to proclaim the mourning of the spouse for the crucifixion of her Lord. Following the ceremonies of the morning

STREET, NEW YORK AMERICANS' HARD WORKING BACKSTOP

THE New York Americans have the strongest catching staff in the country. Street and Sweeney are a pair that would fit in nicely with any club, while Williams, the youngster, is improving right along. The Yanks recently landed Street in a trade with Washington. For two years he handled Walter Johnson's shots in masterly style. He is one of the hardest working backstops in the game.

FLYNN SAYS HE IS BORN FIGHTER

By TOMMY CLARK.

"I WAS born a fighter," says Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, who seeks to wrest the heavyweight laurels from one Jack Johnson. "I can honestly say I love to fight and am always ready and willing to fight." Flynn does not take kindly to the severe criticisms of his match with Johnson. "I have fought ever since I could walk," says Flynn, "and never has there been a time my gameness was questioned." That's all right, Jim, we are all with you and would like to see you win, but from this distance you don't appear to have a chance and you are going to have plenty of trouble trying to convince the followers of the sport that you can compete with Johnson. Flynn, like every one else, is entitled to his opinion, and he, at least, must be admitted for his courage in wanting to face Johnson in the light of a positive defeat. It was courage that brought Flynn through the most of his fights, and the whipping Johnson gave him when he first met him has not dimmed his spirit in the least.

MARTY O'TOOLE does not think much of Thomas A. Edison's idea that four hours' sleep is enough for any man. Twice four hours isn't enough for Marty J. He is rapidly acquiring a reputation as the champion long distance sleeper. This title was tacked on him recently during the training trip. In the sleeper he was awakened four times before he finally decided to get out of his berth and in West Baden, Ind., went to bed with the birds in order to be certain that he would be up for the 6 o'clock morning hike.

He doesn't deny his fondness for sleep or his ability to doze off on the slightest provocation. "The players are predicting that he will miss many a meal and have to sprint for many a train during the season."

When Mathewson, Wagner and Lajoie drop back the game will never be quite the same to a good many people in New York, Pittsburgh and Cleveland. Matty, Hans and Larry—mechanical wonders, brains and courageous, always ready, always trying and nearly always making good—are well above the general average of the clan.

And how long will it be before Pittsburgh finds another Honus when the Flying Dutchman has whaled his last base hit and passed on into the game's twilight? When a ball player works sixteen years for a city and delivers above 300 every year his passing means more than the absence of his ability.

Baker, Russ Ford, Walter Johnson, Alexander, Nap Rucker and 250 or 300 others now framed in gilt around the art stations of the game.

The Yanks turned back Russ Ford one season and were about to push him back the next; Connie Mack cut Jackson adrift, and Detroit passed up Birdie Cree. Neither Boston nor Cin-

HEINIE ZIMMERMAN WILL BE CUBS' UTILITY MAN THIS SEASON

HEINIE ZIMMERMAN, who played second base in such brilliant style last season for the Chicago Cubs, will try to add to his laurels while in the role of utility player this year. Every is back at his old place at second, and Chance thinks he has a star at third in Ed Lennux, so Heinie will have to wait for his chance to shine.

SHIFT OF PLAYERS HAS OFTEN BEEN BENEFICIAL

"Let well enough alone" is an axiom that the successful big league managers must sometimes avoid. The reward of many a pennant success has been the direct result of a shrewd shift in the team's lineup without the club having to get any players from the outside.

It requires much thought and patience to know exactly what position a player fills best. One ball tosser may be mediocre in one position and a star in another. That is the reason the manager must keep alert and try to discover it by moving Jones to the outfield and sending Smith, a man on the bench, to the infield he might but-tress his team.

Some years ago Manager Frank Selee was dissatisfied with his club. It needed more life and youth. On first base he had Tom Tucker, a once great player, who was aging. Selee was soon convinced that first base had to be strengthened or Boston wouldn't figure

In the race for the National League flag. It was a perplexing problem, for Selee had no utility first baseman and didn't know where to get one. It happened that he had discovered a promising young outfielder by the name of Stahl. Stahl showed enough stuff to warrant his getting a trial, but the Boston outfield was in good hands, and there was no room for Stahl.

Finally Selee had the rebuts solved. He shifted Fred Tenney from right field to first base and put Stahl in Tenney's place. The fans and critics ridiculed Selee for making such a change, but in a few weeks they saw the wisdom of the move.

It was not long before Tenney was proclaimed 'the greatest first baseman in the history of baseball and Stahl the find of the year. This was in the season of 1897, and as a result of the shift Boston started a pennant winning streak, which lasted two years. Probably the next greatest shift made by a big league manager took place in 1901, when Fred Clarke took Hans Wagner away from right field and sent him to short in place of "Hones" Ely.

This move was also attacked by the fans, who could not believe that an awkward player like Wagner could fill a position requiring so much speed and alertness as shortstop.

It was a master move on the part of Clarke, who soon had the best shortstop in the National league, and today Hans is playing high class ball. Moreover, it helped the team on its pennant winning career, which lasted from 1901 to 1903.

Later on Clarke made another good move when he took Tommy Leach off third base and sent him to center field. Tommy is now on the decline, but for a number of years he covered more ground than any other center fielder in the country, barring possibly Fielder Jones.

APPROVE CHANGES IN LAWN TENNIS RULES

CHANGES in lawn tennis law have been frequently proposed, but the reformers have seldom been able to get their ideas accepted by the governing body. Very few alterations have been made during the thirty-one years of its existence by the United States National Lawn Tennis association, and its rules at the present time are almost exactly those adopted at the date of organization.

The annual meeting held in New York recently was notable for the passage of two measures of great importance. One of these, a regulation under which the national champion is obliged to play through the tournament, has been pretty fully discussed and is generally accepted as a step in the right direction. The other was a motion brought by one of the ranking ten to devise some means under which the numbers of contestants for the national championship should be limited to those players who had shown sufficient skill to entitle them to the privilege. This motion was approved, and a committee was appointed with power to act.

The plea advanced in favor of limitation was that the tourney was becoming unwieldy and that it was impossible to finish it in a reasonable time, as more than 200 matches were played last year.

At this annual meeting one of the leading experts said that it was in his opinion "inconceivable that any player should care to see himself ranked as No. 80." As a matter of fact, among the many thousand players of the continent even that position would mean a whole lot, and in his earlier days he himself would no doubt have valued the ranking and perhaps been spurred on by it to a higher place.

MUCH DEPENDS ON O'TOOLE.

Marty O'Toole played nine days for the recovery of his $22,500 arm. Tad Jones once won a football game that way. If Pittsburgh wins the pennant I am going to get the habit myself. What is Dreyfuss doing?

ennant could see Marty O'Toole, but when Pittsburgh saw him it cost Barney Dreyfuss $22,500.

Jack Daubert failed to impress Cleveland and was shoved overboard. Eddie Collins failed to edge in as a regular in March or April, and it was only after the season was well under way that Edward nailed down the job.

Jimmy Smith, Who Did Some Wonderful Bowling Recently

EXPERTS have conferred the title of the greatest match bowler of the world on Jimmy Smith, formerly of New York and now of Buffalo. The topin star has won more match games than any other knight of the alley in America. During a recent visit to Chicago Smith gave a wonderful exhibition on the alleys. He had two matches on with the Chicago experts, with $1,000 bet on the side. He won from both, rolling just enough to win. At the end of the second series a Chicago fan made some rather unsportsmanlike remarks to the Buffalo boy.

Smith, greatly angered, replied that there wasn't a bowler in Chicago that he couldn't beat with ease. "And," he added, "I'll bet $500 to $1,500 that I can roll an average of 240 pins for ten straight games right on your own alleys." His challenge was accepted. He put up his money and a stakeholder was chosen.

Then Smith began what is considered to be the greatest bowling ever seen on a Chicago alley, or, in fact, in any other place. In the first game he rolled 280, then dropped to 255. In the third game he rolled 300, and in the fifth he again had a perfect score of 300. In all he averaged 265 for the ten games.

Togo, the Great Little Jap Fighter

TOGO, the 120 pound Japanese fighter, who gave Battling Nelson such a run for his money a few weeks ago, is short, squatly, barrel shaped, with a round, closely cropped bullet head and possessed of extraordinary strength. Of science he knows little or nothing, but his capacity to wade in, take all that comes his way and cripple an opponent in the clinches cannot be overestimated. Last year Harry Forbes took a trip to Oklahoma for the purpose of meeting Togo in a fifteen round contest. Forbes was in grand shape at the time. He was not pulled down to a shadow, as in his recent disastrous match with Johnny Coulton, but went in at a weight which suited him perfectly. About that time Forbes was showing well, having scored several knockouts over men of his class in fight time, and he anticipated little trouble in dealing with the practically unknown invader from across the brine. But, although by virtue of superior ring craft and generalship he managed to outpoint the Jap, the latter roughed matters with him in a way that made the former bantam champion fight every inch of the route for all that was in him in order to hold his own.

New Style Play For Tigers

It is gathered from Jennings' remarks that the Tigers will largely discard their famous hit and run plays this year and take to buntation. The two plays will be mixed, and Jennings hopes by this to keep the foe in the air.

At the training camp everybody practiced bunting. As a matter of fact, only two or three members of the team are now able to bunt, so regularly has the hit and run been played.

AD WOLGAST MEANS TO SHINE AS AUTOIST

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION AD WOLGAST has added automobile racing to his other accomplishments. This will cause the fight promoters some uneasiness, as they figure the champion might do something other than risk his neck at this stage of the situation.

Wolgast is one of those youngsters who place for excitement, and racing automobiles are sure enough excitement for any one. The champion will make his first appearance at the Santa Monica (Cal.) track May 4, when he will enter against some of the cleverest racing car drivers in the country.

Jack Johnson tried the automobile racing game, but found that it was an altogether different sport from boxing. The heavyweight champion was soon convinced that a man can attain but one championship at a time, and Wolgast probably will learn likewise after his first race. Wolgast, however, is confident that he can race a car and plans to enter into the International Sweepstakes, which come on May 30 in Indianapolis.

Fight Described by Englishman

Excerpts from Australian-English describing a prizefight: McVey's left kept twiddling home to the goose egg.

Scarcely a blow was being struck, but the evasion was excellent. Langford bashed a left. McVey kept omnibussing to the mug. McVey received a Denny Hayser. Langford got him hard downstairs. Langford got home to the dial.

DIAMOND CAREER NOT ENDED WHEN ARM GOES BAD, SAYS DAVIS

HARRY DAVIS of the Cleveland Naps is one of those individuals who do not believe that a ball player's diamond career is ended when his arm goes out of commission and his legs lose their speed.

"Ball players too often devote most of their energy looking after their salaries," he declared with emphasis recently. "They argue that at the best they have only a few years to stay in the game. They believe that during that time they must collect enough coin to last the remainder of their lives. They see visions of going back to hard labor, of losing all the comforts of life which they enjoyed while drawing large salaries as members of major leagues.

"That's wrong. It's entirely wrong. They don't appreciate the hugeness of this game. Baseball is an immense proposition. There's not the slightest reason in the world why a man should not make it his life work just as a man makes the study of the auto business his life work when he enters the office of an auto concern.

"Just think over the list of men who have retired or who have been forced to retire as baseball players in recent years. Think for a moment what a vast number of them are still directly connected with the sport.

"The game is just like a business. The man who studies it, who is attentive, who is ambitious, who does what's right, who gives the club all that he possesses, who takes care of himself, is the man who will stick to the game and who will find that it will pay him dividends as long as any other line of work would.

"Just consider for a moment how many minor league clubs in this country are more than anxious to get men of intelligence at good salaries to manage their clubs. Think of the number of scouts employed by major league clubs. There's room for every man who is willing to try to advance in his profession.

"I don't intend to sentimentalize, but that's a plain statement of fact, and conditions support my argument.

"Don't think for a minute that I believe a ball player isn't entitled to a healthy salary. On the contrary, I believe he is and earns it. What I mean to convey is the idea that the ball player should work for the future just as the young fellow does in any other line of work."

Catcher Stange Lacks Gift of Gab

IF Oscar Stange had Roger Bresnahan's gift of gab he would be universally hailed as the greatest catcher in baseball today," declared Joe Sugden, former star behind the pads.

"Stange's real worth is not appreciated by the major portion of the fans. Oscar is in there day after day, showing consistent form, and it is his lack of showiness that sends the attention of the stands to other parts of the field.

"Stange is fast. He is a big man, but there isn't a faster catcher in the major leagues. But Stange has his speed always in reserve. When there are no men on the bases Stange is like a well oiled machine. He works without friction, but at low speed. When a man starts to steal in when the Detroit catcher shows his worth. He is speed itself in getting the ball away.

"Stange seldom makes a wild throw. His tosses are always well within reach of the baseman, and the beauty of it all is that Oscar can throw to any sack with equal precision. A base runner can never tell when the big fellow is going to send the ball away, and for this reason opposing runners fear to take any liberties."

Some Clubs Overshadow Others

CERTAIN cities overshadow all rivals in certain departments of play. Greater New York, as a starter, is well fixed for first basemen with Chase, Daubert and Merkle.

Boston can boast of two stanch outfielders in Speaker, Hooper and Lewis of the Red Sox, with Miller, Campbell and Jackson of the Braves. Chicago has always stood high with catchers in Killing, Sullivan and Archer, and Philadelphia has the Athletics.

Chance Has Many First Basemen

Frank Chance is not so badly off for first basemen, even if he is unable to play the bag himself. He has Bransford, Hoffman, Sater, Agler and possibly Zimmerman available.

SIMON MAY BECOME PITTSBURGH'S REGULAR BACKSTOP

IT is said on good authority that Simon will be the regular catcher of the Pittsburgh team this season. Gibson has been the mainstay behind the bat for several campaigns, but sloved up considerably last year. Simon is a hard worker and possesses a good throwing arm.

EDDIE COLLINS IS GREATEST SECOND BASEMAN, SAYS COMISKEY

A VETERAN like Charley Comiskey of Chicago, who has seen the old school of players as well as modern ball tossers, unhesitatingly says that Eddie Collins of the Athletics is the greatest ball player that ever guarded the second sack.
